Saint-Gaudens and the Gilded Era Louise Hall Tharp, 1969 Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site General Management Plan (GMP) and Development Concept Plan, Sullivan County, 1996 Saint-Gaudens, National Historic Site, New Hampshire United States. National Park Service, 1996 Cultural Landscape Report for Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site: Site history and existing conditions Marion Pressley, Cynthia Zaitzevsky, 1993 Augustus Saint-Gaudens in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Thayer Tolles, 2009

The Metropolitan Museum of Art has some forty five sculptures by Augustus Saint Gaudens 1848 1907 the American Beaux Arts sculptor who worked in New York Paris and Cornish New Hampshire The Museum's collection fully represents the range of his oeuvre from early cameos to innovative painterly bas reliefs to reductions after public monuments for East Coast cities Through the lens of the Museum's unparalleled holdings as well as some related loans this exhibition offers a reappraisal of Saint Gaudens's groundbreaking role in the history of late nineteenth century American sculpture and the Aesthetic Movement The Metropolitan Museum of Art web site Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Master Sculptor Kathryn Greenthal, 1985

Kathryn Greenthal's Augustus Saint Gaudens Master Sculptor is a critical study of one of the greatest artists this country has produced The book recounts the sculptor's early days in New York as a cameo cutter's apprentice and his student years in France and Italy and identifies the sources of European influence from which he honed his native talent and earned his place in the international sculptural hierarchy The author examines Saint Gaudens's major achievements and reveals the associations working methods and fortunes of a man whose career flourished in the last quarter of the nineteenth century and the opening years of the twentieth Saint Gaudens established himself in New York in the 1880s after periods of work and study in Paris and Rome His return to America coincided with the great age of Beaux Arts architecture and the sculptor's inspired association with Henry Hobson Richardson Charles McKim and Stanford White led to the creation of the works for which he is best known The copper figure of Diana that Saint Gaudens made to embellish the original Madison Square Garden is the work most strongly identified with the sculptor today Saint Gaudens's monuments to American heroes to Lincoln in Chicago to Farragut and Sherman in New York and to Robert Gould Shaw in Boston demonstrate the Beaux Arts concern with decoration but also display a particularly American mythologizing quality In a sense these great men of history live in the public consciousness through the aspect of their characters Saint Gaudens chose to portray In another mode Saint Gaudens created large scale works of great intimacy most notably the Adams Memorial in Washington D C whose solitary figure represents the emotion of grief Throughout his career while he was at work on monumental commissions Saint Gaudens also produced many relief portraits that show the delicacy of his draughtsmanship Some of these are like sketches in bronze others are fully developed portraits In subject they range from a series of the sculptor's celebrated artist friends to distinguished personages and the children of wealthy patrons Finally late in his life Saint Gaudens was asked by Theodore

Roosevelt to design coins The figures of Liberty and the eagles that decorated these ten and twenty dollar gold pieces remain emblems of the federal identity familiar and ideal Copiously illustrated with photographs those by Jerry L Thompson taken especially for the book Augustus Saint Gaudens Master Sculptor presents in dazzling array accounts of works described by John K Howat in the book s preface as possessing such superb qualities of line form color and surface that they capture equally our mind and our eye with the illusive impact of great beauty found only in the finest art objects the sculptor Augustus Saint Gaudens transcended scandal to enrich their times Stanford White was a louche man about town and a canny cultural entrepreneur the creator of landmark buildings that elevated American architecture to new heights Augustus Saint Gaudens was the son of an immigrant shoemaker a moody introvert and a committed procrastinator whose painstaking work brought emotional depth to American sculpture They met when Stan was walking down the street and heard Gus whistling Mozart in his studio They pursued their own careers in Italy and France then came together again in New York where they maintained an intimate friendship and partnership that defined the art of the Gilded Age Over the course of decades White would help sustain his friend s troubled spirits and vouch for Saint Gaudens when he failed to complete projects Meanwhile Saint Gaudens would challenge White to take his artistic gifts seriously and so it went amid brilliant commissions and sordid debaucheries all the way to White s sensational murder by an enraged husband in 1906 In Stan and Gus the acclaimed historian Henry Wiencek sets the two men s relationship within the larger story of the American Renaissance where millionaires commissions and delusions of grandeur collided with secret upper class clubs new aesthetic ideas and two ambitious young men to yield work of lasting beauty The Architecture of Leisure Susan R.
