Morris, 1993-02-04 An examination of literary works spanning more than seven centuries this volume studies the ascetic hero and asceticism exploring the elusive interplay between religion politics and belles lettres in Russia The first part places works including the thirteenth century Kievan Crypt Patericon and Life of Avraamii Smolenskii Epifanii s Life of Sergii Radonezhskii and other lives written in the north of Russia in the context of crucial religious doctrines such as apocalypticism and deification The author shows how Old Russian literature plays a major cultural role in the continuing development of these doctrines on Russian soil The second part traces a revival of the Russian fascination with themes of apocalypse and perfectibility to the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Morris also documents the development of a divergence in ideological approach between Russian writers who continued to view apocalypticism and deification as religious phenomena and those who used them as tools of social and political struggle

Works by Gogol Tolstoy Dostoevsky Chernyshevsky and Gorky as well as classic novels of the socialist realist tradition are analyzed as evidence of the underlying unity of the literary manifestations of this ostensibly bifurcated intellectual tradition
