O'Malley,Gauvin Alexander Bailey,Steven J. Harris,T. Frank Kennedy,2016-01-28 In recent years scholars in a range of disciplines have begun to re evaluate the history of the Society of Jesus Approaching the subject with new questions and methods they have reconsidered the importance of the Society in many sectors including those related to the sciences and the arts They have also looked at the Jesuits as emblematic of certain traits of early modern Europeans especially as those Europeans interacted with the Other in Asia and the Americas Originating in an international conference held at Boston College in 1997 the thirty five essays here reflect this new historiographical trend Focusing on the Old Society the Society before its suppression in 1773 by papal edict they examine the worldwide Jesuit undertaking in such fields as music art architecture devotional writing mathematics physics astronomy natural history public performance and education and they give special attention to the Jesuits interaction with non European cultures in North and South America China India and the Philippines A picture emerges not only of the individual Jesuit who might be missionary diplomat architect and playwright over the course of his life in the Society but also of the immense and many faceted Jesuit enterprise as forming a kind of cultural ecosystem The Jesuits of the Old Society liked to think they had a way of proceeding special to themselves The question Was there a Jesuit style a Jesuit corporate culture is the thread that runs through this interdisciplinary collection of studies The Franciscan Invention of the New World Julia McClure,2016-11-30 This book examines the story of the discovery of America through the prism of the history of the Franciscans a socio religious movement with a unique doctrine of voluntary poverty The Franciscans rapidly developed global dimensions but their often paradoxical relationships with poverty and power offer an alternate account of global history Through this lens Julia McClure offers a deeper history of colonialism not only by extending its chronology but also by exploring the powerful role of ambivalence in the emergence of colonial regimes Other topics discussed include the legal history of property the complexity and politics of global knowledge networks the early and neglected history of the Near Atlantic and the transatlantic inquisition mysticism apocalypticism and religious imaginations of place The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1905 St. Francis of Assisi G K Chesterton,2015-08-08 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Roxburghe Library of Classics ,1904

Testimony, Narrative and Image: Studies in Medieval and Franciscan History, Hagiography and Art in Memory of Rosalind B. Brooke ,2022-03-16 This volume unites a team of distinguished scholars from France Germany Italy the UK and the USA to celebrate Rosalind B Brooke s immense contribution to Franciscan studies over the last 60 years It is divided into four sections beginning with an appraisal of Dr Brooke s influence upon Franciscan studies The second section contains a series of historical studies and expressions of the Franciscan spirit Hagiographical studies occupy the third section reflecting the friars ministry and the thirst for the renewal of the Franciscan vision The fourth part explores the art and iconographical images of St Francis and his friars These innovative studies reflect new insights into and interpretations of Franciscan life in the Middle Ages Contributors are in order of appearance Michael W Blastic O F M Maria Pia Alberzoni Bert Roest Michael F Cusato O F M Jens R hrkasten David Luscombe Luigi Pellegrini Peter Murray Jones Maria Teresa Dolso Michael J P Robson Andr Vauchez David Burr William R Cook Nigel Morgan and Kathleen Giles Arthur History of Libraries of the Western World Michael H. Harris,1999-07-29 This edition of the History of Libraries in the Western World represents a substantial revision of the earlier edition taking into account the information revolution that has swept the West since 1945 and the political revolution that swept across Europe beginning in 1986 In addition recent scholarship has been incorporated throughout the text with special emphasis on the work centered around the new history of the book The bibliographies at the end of each of the twelve chapters have been thoroughly revised to reflect the very considerable new work on library and book history
