Egan, 2020-11-30 This book is a revision and condensation of a doctoral dissertation which its author wrote under the direction of the well-known Father Karl Rahner at the University of Münster It focuses on the importance of St Ignatius' small book the Spiritual Exercises as a source of theological investigation Thus it stems from Rahner's own conviction as he states in his foreword that the real theological and not only the spiritual significance of Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises presents a non yet accomplished task to today's theology Absorbing synthesizing and completing past studies on the Exercises Father Egan summarizes the findings of modern scholars such as Przwara Fessard Karl Rahner Hugo Rahner Marxer Cusson Gil Bakker and Gonzalez de Mendoza all hitherto relatively unavailable in English and then presents his own fresh viewpoint His quest is for Ignatius' mystical horizon the lived internal unity the roots of all of Ignatius' experiences knowledge and love Applying the contemporary methodology in theology to the study of the Ignatian Exercises the author offers a penetrating and comprehensive treatment of Ignatius' consolation without previous cause of the Three Times of Election including intellectual and affective discernment the trinitarian dimensions of the Exercises and other

Mattison III, 2005-06-03 The growing shift in Catholic moral theology from reflecting on rules alone to focusing on the identity and formation of persons as moral agents prompts a further question What impact do recent changes in the identity and formation of Catholic moral theologians themselves have on how that discipline is practiced Young Catholic moral theologians experience a sharply different professional formation and a changed location of ongoing professional life than prior generations of moral theologians How do these differences influence the field of moral theology as a whole New Wine New Wineskins A Next Generation Reflects on Key Issues in Catholic Moral Theology addresses these questions and more by offering a snapshot of how a new generation of Catholic moral theologians understands not only topics in the field but the effects of their own identity and formation on their treatment of those topics The distinctive contribution of this volume is the interweaving of three key concerns all of which arise out of a critical self reflection on the task of moral theology today the character and adequacy of training and ongoing formation in the field of Catholic moral theology the purpose and nature of teaching Catholic moral theology and the fittingness of methodological debates with regard to the needs of the Christian life Each essay makes a contribution to its specific area of interest ranging from economic ethics to Patristic rhetoric to the nature and development of practical reasoning while probing what exactly young Catholic moral theologians are doing and how they can do what they do better
