Une saison dans la vie d'Emmanuel Yvon Morin,1972 The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich,2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions

Canada : Images D'une Société Post/nationale Nordic Association for Canadian Studies. International Conference,2009 Has Canada moved beyond the nation state into the world of the post national To what extent have fixed notions of Canadian nationhood been replaced by a more global decentralized sense of identification Is nationhood or post nationhood best expressed by statelessness and exile or by belonging Or can Canadian national identity in fact fruitfully coexist with the post national consciousness These are some of the issues covered by this volume issues seen from a range of perspectives literary cultural political and economic In the literary sphere the national post national debate is explored both through canonical writers such as L M Montgomery Stephen Leacock and Marie Claire Blais and through recent First Nations Asian Canadian African Canadian Ukrainian Canadian and Quebec writing The political and economic range is equally diverse covering such topics as immigration policy multiculturalism Canadian American relations tourist imaginings of the Canadian North the Canadian city and Quebec nationalism The book brings together 27 original articles from international scholars and creative writers offering both European and Canadian perspectives Six articles in French focus specifically on the francophone sphere Une Saison Dans la Vie D'Emmanuel. Profiles of Canada Kenneth G. Pryke, Walter C. Soderlund, 2003 This third edition of Profiles of Canada combines depth breadth sophistication and readability to offer the student a comprehensive introduction to Canadian society The editors have brought together contributions from a wide range of disciplines to create a fascinating overview of the various facets of Canadian life and culture The text includes aspects of the Canadian experience not usually found in introductory texts The inclusion of a short story by Alistair MacLeod for example is an innovative departure from the academic writing of the other chapters and provides the student of Canadian society with a sample of the finest in contemporary Canadian writing Editors Dr Kenneth Pryke and Dr Walter Soderlund have carried out a successful update of the earlier editions of this well respected text Aspects of Canada explored in this new edition include regionalism the North demography ethnicity culture and sport The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years. This is an opportunity for stock-taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished. There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence. The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day. The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language. The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered. The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing.
