Family Violence and Men of Color

Ricardo Carrillo, Jerry Tello, 2008-08-15 This innovative book examines an important timely topic The content will greatly enhance practitioners and students understanding and skills in working with men of color Elaine P Congress DSW Fordham University Graduate School of Social Service Family Violence and Men of Color is the best book in cross cultural issues and domestic violence that I have ever read It is a good combination of literature review clinical interventions and cultural imagery Daniel Sonkin PhD Marriage Family and Child Counselor Family violence is an international epidemic that knows no cultural boundaries but for years research has overlooked the historical political and cultural factors that often lead men toward violent behavior The first edition of Family Violence and Men of Color broke new ground by closely examining the relationship between race and family violence This revised edition offers an even broader cross cultural analysis of male violence and more specialized treatment methods and approaches Key Features Chapters analyzing violent behavioral patterns in each major community of color Three new chapters on the African American and Maori communities in addition to the Latino Native American Asian and South American communities Culturally based strategies and models that enhance the efficacy of existing intervention programs for men who batter Integrates clinical experiential and narrative approaches to family violence This text calls for a critical evaluation and transformation of cultural practices that promote violence against women and will be pivotal in the development of more effective prevention and intervention programs in the years to come

A Community of Voices on Education and the African American Experience Hazel Arnett Ervin, Lois Jamison Sheer, 2016-02-29 This book offers a history of African American education while also serving as a companion text for teachers students and researchers in cultural criticism American and African American studies postcolonialism historiography and psychoanalytics Overall it represents essential reading for scholars critics leaders of educational policy and all others interested in ongoing discussions not only about the role of community family teachers and others in facilitating quality education for the citizenry but also about ensuring the posterity of a society via equal access to and attainment of quality education by its constituents of color Particularly this volume fills a void in the annals of African American history and African American education by addressing the vibrancy of an education ethos within Black America which has unequivocally served as cultural historical political legal and theoretical references

One-Party Classroom David Horowitz, Jacob Laksin, 2009-03-10 David Horowitz has single handedly exposed the intellectual corruption that exists within the classrooms of American colleges Like all forms of corruption indoctrination flourishes when kept in the dark Here Horowitz turns on the bright lights to expose what has become profoundly wrong with our colleges and universities We are all in his debt Ward Connerly former regent University of California David Horowitz and coauthor Jacob Laksin take us inside twelve major universities where radical agendas have been institutionalized and scholarly standards abandoned The schools they examine are not the easily avoided bottom of the barrel Rather they are an all too representative sampling of American higher education today Horowitz and Laksin have conducted the first comprehensive in depth multiyear investigation of what is being taught in colleges and universities across the country public to private from large state schools to elite Ivy League institutions They have systematically scrutinized course catalogs reading lists professors biographies scholarly records and the first person testimonies of students administrators and faculty Citing more than 150 specific courses they reveal how academic standards have been violated and demonstrate beyond dispute that systematic indoctrination in radical politics is now an integral part of the liberal arts curriculum of America s colleges The extreme ideological cant that today s students are being fed includes Promoting Marxist approaches as keys to understanding human societies with no mention of the bloody legacy of these doctrines and total collapse in the real world of the societies they created Instilling the idea that racism brutally enforced by a white male patriarchy to oppress people of color and other marginalized groups has been the organizing principle of American society throughout its history and into the present Requiring students to believe that gender is not a biological characteristic but a socially created aspect of human behavior designed by men to oppress women Persuading students that America and Israel are imperialistic and racist states and that the latter has no more right to exist than the South African regime in the days of apartheid In page after shocking page Horowitz and Laksin demonstrate that America s colleges and universities are platforms for a virulent orthodoxy that threatens academic ideals and academic freedom In place of scholarship and the dispassionate pursuit of truth that have long been the hallmarks of higher learning the new militancy embraces activist zealotry and ideological fervor In disturbingly large segments of today s universities students are no longer taught how to think but are told what to think
