Flynn,2010-10-26 I hunched at my school desk seventeen and slipping into an abyss whose shadow I had barely glimpsed before My left hand shook with free associations in a spatter of words that galloped through my head and outside the margins of lined notebook paper Dark its so dark like it was night even though its 8 00 in the morning Warning Everythings going to fall fall apart my heart will break and take away everything my mind is fading fast fast vast emptiness oh help the universe is coming to get me I whirled and then faded dead inside into a suffocating fog Speaking of dead that was all I wanted Well it wasnt that I wanted to die I had to I needed to escape the tumult that was exhausting my emotional and physical resources And I had to die because I deserved to because I was evil I knew that I had transformed absolutely into a rotten core I had recently discovered this one horrifying night when it became clear as I raced around my bedroom that I was the reincarnation of Judas Iscariot betrayer of Jesus And I would plunge to Hell like he had so why shouldnt I kill myself now to get it over with Especially since I only burdened everyone around me My family and friends would rejoice once I was dead These thoughts progressed to the point that I could no longer touch anyone in order that I not contaminate them with my toxic essence Then I could no longer allow my fingers or limbs to touch each other because somehow this was evil too Soon God no longer permitted me to eat or sleep because I was such a monstrosity I stopped showering and changing clothes almost stopped speaking No longer able to attend high school I shrunk my days to mere huddling on a chair in our living room guarded by my parents and siblings in shifts Every moment I could snatch to myself I punched holes in my wrist with a safety pin hidden in my sleeve One afternoon left alone for a minute I crept furtively to the top of the second floor flight of stairs about to hurl myself down them until I was discovered and tugged back downstairs held tightly by the hand Finally my mind and body were so clamped down by dark gravity that I was no longer able to hurt myself One day I simply goggled at the unfamiliar face in our cold bathroom mirror Who is that Im not me anymoreIm an alien I decided Someone or something has stolen my identity and taken me over Well it can have me I surrender because I am worth nothing anyway So nothing matters I certainly dont matter During those gray hours days and months my mind cramped into nothing but ruminations of worthlessness and I didnt matter to myself at all Luckily of course to my parents and brothers and sisters I did matter very much Even if they puzzled over what was happening to me as much as I did they intuited my distress and incapacitization and got me help My family brought me to a psychiatric hospital where I stayed for a month I was diagnosed with depression with psychotic features and given antidepressants and an antipsychotic While in the hospital I discovered art therapy and painted surreal abstracts and wrote long narrative poems about my depression and recovery And recover I did into the blessed contentment of feeling like myself again a brighter happier self at that Now armed with a name for what ailed me I consumed volumes about depression and bipolar disorder I devoured books and articles about psychotropic medications and art therapy and theories of psychiatric rehabilitation and mood charting and the consumer movement I discovered Kay Redfield Jamison Ph D who became a role model and pored over her memoir An Unquiet Mind and Manic Depressive Illness the authoritative text on bipolar disorder that Jamison wrote with Frederick Goodwin MD I involved myself with one of the nations leading mental health advocacy organizations the National Alliance on Mental Illness abbreviated as NAMI and later assumed a lead

Thompson's Shannon's Code of Tennessee, 1917

Seeking Psychology in Scripture Shannon Martindale, 2012-12-18 While languishing in the desert of depression, devout Christian Shannon Martindale assumed her complete healing would be the result of her faith. Exercising the principles offered by scripture, which previously sustained her through the challenges of divorce, single parenting, family deaths, remarriage, and infertility, she entered the valley of sorrow, searching for spiritual replenishment, yet still remaining unhealed. Guidance finally came by discovering the origin of her disorder, physiologically residing in an over-sensitive nervous system. Through a psychiatrist who combined Christian therapy with an international self-help organization emphasizing the essential necessity of balance, today she maintains her mental, emotional, and spiritual health by avoiding extremes. She now leads a normal life integrating Christianity and psychology in this personal account of her successful recovery, offered for all who have walked the path of uncertainty frequently experienced by depressed Christians.

The Early Literacy Handbook

Dominic Wyse, Christine Parker, 2013-03-27 The heart of this book is a new approach to the teaching of language and literacy. Its focus is exemplary classroom practice built on rigorous theory and evidence. The approach combines new theory and dynamic practice in its advocacy for contextualised teaching. This book shows how the teaching of smaller units of language, such as sentences, words, letters, and phonemes, follows naturally from the context of whole texts. The book offers practical examples, photographs from settings, case studies, and action points to help any practitioner working with young children to develop one of the most crucial life skills: advice on how to build on children's motivation using whole texts, clear guidance on phonics teaching in an appropriate context, and a unique blend of new theory and dynamic practice.

Y Marjorie

Celona, 2013-01-08 Y That perfect letter. The wishbone fork in the road. Empty wineglass. The question we ask over and over: Why? My life begins at the Y. So opens Marjorie Celona's highly acclaimed and exquisitely rendered debut about a wise, beyond-her-years foster child abandoned as a newborn on the doorstep of the local YMCA. Swaddled in a dirty gray sweatshirt with nothing but a Swiss Army knife tucked between her feet, little Shannon is discovered by a man who catches only a glimpse of her troubled mother as she disappears from view. That morning, all three lives are forever changed. Bounced between foster homes, Shannon endures abuse and neglect until she finally finds stability with Miranda, a kind but no-nonsense single mother with a free-spirited daughter of her own. Yet Shannon defines life on her own terms, refusing to settle down and never stops longing to uncover her roots, especially the stubborn question of why her mother would abandon her on the day she was born. Brilliantly and hauntingly interwoven with Shannon's story is the tale of her mother, Yula, a girl herself who is facing a desperate fate in the hours and days leading up to Shannon's birth. As past and present converge, Y tells an unforgettable story of identity inheritance and ultimately forgiveness Celona's ravishingly beautiful novel offers a deeply affecting look at the choices we make and what it means to be a family and it marks the debut of a magnificent new voice in contemporary fiction
