The Measure of All Things Shlomo Giora Shoham, 2014-09-01 The Measure of All Things is the final volume in a trilogy about man as related to the genesis of the world to metaphysics and to the ontological vicissitudes of the human species This book reviews the condition of man and his relationship with the forces of evolution in both a biological and a spiritual sense It is therefore an innovative excursion into the present day arguments between the evolutionist and creationist regarding the fate of man A Heart Beating Hard Lauren Foss Goodman, 2014-12-01 A story about the passed along People about how we are the same and how we are different about how we become who we are and how we protect our most private places from the cold glare of all that we cannot control Concepts of Nature R. J. Snell, Steven F. McGuire, 2016-10-07 If natural law arguments struggle to gain traction in contemporary moral and political discourse could it be because we moderns do not share the understanding of nature on which that language was developed Building on the work of important thinkers of the last half century including Leo Strauss Eric Voegelin John Finnis and Bernard Lonergan the essays in Concepts of Nature compare and contrast classical medieval and modern conceptions of nature in order to better understand how and why the concept of nature no longer seems to provide a limit or standard for human action These essays also evaluate whether a rearticulation of pre modern ideas or perhaps a reconciliation or reconstitution on modern terms is desirable and or possible Edited by R J Snell and Steven F McGuire this book will be of interest to intellectual historians political theorists theologians
