Religion, Globalization, and Culture Peter Beyer, Lori G. Beaman, 2007-10-30 This volume brings together over 25 articles by many of the most important authors who have worked on issues directly related to the theme of religion and globalization. An additional emphasis on culture flags the inclusion of the relation of religion to its wider social context and also permits questioning the boundaries of religion so as to avoid a strong bias in favour of the analysis of institutionalized religion. The key emphasis of the book however is the focus specifically on religion a topic that is still largely ignored in the burgeoning literature on globalization. The articles are divided into five subthemes: theoretical issues, historical approaches to religion and globalization, forms and boundaries of religion, key issues such as ecology and gender, and regional perspectives. Contributors: Afe Adogame, Elisabeth Arweck, Lori Beaman, Peter Beyer, John Boli, Gary Bouma, Dave Brewington, George Van Campbell, Jos Casanova, Paul Freston, Nobutaka Inoue, Laurel Kearns, Otto Maduro, Vasilios Makrides, Meredith McGuire, Vincenzo Pace, Rubina Ramji, James T. Richardson, Ole Riis, Roland Robertson, Marie Andr e Roy, Shandip Saha, John H. Simpson, James V. Spickard, William Stahl, George Thomas, Bryan Turner, Margit Warburg, and Michael Wilkinson. Modern Europe, 1789-Present Asa Briggs, Patricia Clavin, 2014-06-06. Now covering the whole of Europe from the French Revolution to the present day, this major new edition has been completely revised and brought up to date. The approach embraces the whole continent from both national and regional perspectives and combines political survey with grass roots people history. Bringing this history vividly to life, the authors use a very broad range of sources including memoirs, archives, letters, songs, and newspapers. In particular, there is new treatment of the following themes: Religion and the modern Papacy, Immigration in Europe, and relationships between minority and majority groups, UNESCO, The European Bill of Rights, The seeds of conflict in Bosnia and Croatia, Europe's relations with the wider world, with particular attention to the Middle East and Japan.

Calendar London School of Economics and Political Science, 1968      The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World Katie Barclay, Peter N. Stearns, 2022-08-09. The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World brings together a diverse array of scholars to offer an overview of the current and emerging scholarship of emotions in the modern world. Across thirty-six chapters, this work enters the field of emotion from a range of angles. Named emotions (love, anger, fear) highlight how particular categories have been deployed to make sense of feeling and their evolution over time. Geographical perspectives provide access to the historiographies of regions that are less well covered by English language sources, opening up global perspectives and new literatures. Key thematic sections are designed to intersect with critical historiographies, demonstrating the value of an emotions perspective to a range of areas. Topical sections direct attention to the role of emotions in relations of power to intimate lives and histories of place as products of exchanges across groups and as deployed by new technologies and medias. The concepts of globalisation and modernity run through the volume, acting as foils for comparison and analytical tools. The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World is the perfect resource for all students and scholars interested in the history of emotions across the world from 1700. Books Available in English by Russians and on Russia Nicholas Martianoff, 1960      Time and the Shape of History P.
