Shaping Space Paul Zelanski, Mary Pat Fisher, 2007 Introductory guide to three dimensional design and sculpture which offers an in depth exploration of aesthetic and practical considerations of working three dimensionally Shaping Space Marjorie Senechal, 2013-03-22 This second edition is based off of the very popular Shaping Space A Polyhedral Approach first published twenty years ago The book is expanded and updated to include new developments including the revolutions in visualization and model making that the computer has wrought Shaping Space is an exuberant richly illustrated interdisciplinary guide to three dimensional forms focusing on the surprisingly diverse world of polyhedra Geometry comes alive in Shaping Space as a remarkable range of geometric ideas is explored and its centrality in our culture is persuasively demonstrated The book is addressed to designers artists architects engineers chemists computer scientists mathematicians bioscientists crystallographers earth scientists and teachers at all levels in short to all scholars and educators interested in and working with two and three dimensional structures and patterns Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary

Walking Narratives Adrien Frenay, Giulio Iacoli, Lucia Quaquarelli, 2024-12-22 Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary Walking Narratives represents an exploration of the dynamic intersections between mobility space and literature By focusing on walking as both a practice and a narrative device the book illustrates how mobilities shape and reconfigure our experiences of space Drawing from both literary and interdisciplinary approaches the contributors engage with diverse themes including urban flânerie rural wanderings migration and queer spatialities The research presented here shows how literary discourse mediates and constructs human relationships with space and place Addressing with key theoretical movements such as the narrative spatial and mobilities turns this book contributes to the recent humanities turn by advancing discussions within mobility studies particularly in French and Italian contexts Shaping Space, 2005

Shaping Space Marjorie Senechal, George M. Fleck, 1988 Light: The Shape of Space Lou Michel, 1995-10-27 Light The Shape of Space Designing with Space and Light Lou Michel Every design professional who touches a space shapes the light and the feeling of that space Architect lighting engineer interior designer lighting or home furnishing manufacturer each contributes an aesthetic layer sometimes yielding unexpected results All too often the best laid plans of one professional are unintentionally subverted by another Removing surprises and guess work from design Lou Michel honored architectural lighting educator has created Light The Shape of Space showing how to design with the effects of light rather than light itself The book is a revolutionary resource for all design professionals and manufacturers of surfacing materials Drawing on over fifteen years experience of research and teaching in the architectural Space and Light Laboratory at The University of Kansas Michel masterfully examines the interrelationship of lighting and the design of architectural space as perceived not in architectural photos or paint chips and fabric swatches but by human vision the gateway to emotional response The book was written for professionals who care about how people feel in the spaces they design and focuses on the humanization of architecture Taking a non stylistic approach to design Michel analyzes architecture from the perspective of how the users see their surroundings as they move through space The reader will learn what pleases and what disturbs people based on how the human visual system responds to color texture pattern and brightness The book features principles of design for the student and professional and is generously supported by illustrations and research Michel also provides a method for evaluating the visual effectiveness of building materials and lighting systems including those that will appear on the market long after this book is dog eared Michel unveils a groundbreaking luminance brightness rating system LBR and a nine zone brightness scale to aid designers in previsualizing the appearance of surfacing materials at every stage of the design process from schematics to development to refinement Among the topics treated are the interaction of lighting and spatial design color theory for space and light the luminance relationships between free standing objects and the surrounding spatial boundaries against which they are seen the appearance of building materials in color and brightness when modified by light and spatial location lighting spatial connections including the perception of rooms adjacent to the observer lighting and perception of spaces screened by architectural grilles creating lighted space Designing with the effects of light is both an art and a science No other book on the market bridges that gap as successfully as Light The Shape of Space Eloquent Spaces Shonaleeka Kaul,2019-04-25 Eloquent Spaces adopts the twin analytic of meaning and community to write a fresh history of building in early India It presents a new perspective on the principles and practices of early Indian architecture Defining it broadly over a range of space uses the book argues for architecture as a form of cultural production as well as public consumption Ten chapters by leading archaeologists architects historians and philosophers examining different architectural sites and landscapes including Sanchi Moodabidri Srinagar Chidambaram Patan Konark Basgo and Puri demonstrate the need to look beyond the built form to its spirit beyond aesthetics to cognition and thereby to integrating architecture with its myriad living contexts The volume captures some of the semantic diversity inherent in premodern Indian traditions of civic building both sacred and secular which were however unified in their insistence on enacting meaning and a transcendent validity over and above utility and beauty of form The book is a quest for a culturally rooted architecture as an alternative to the growing crisis of disembeddedness that informs modern praxis This volume will be of interest to scholars and practitioners of architecture ancient Indian history philosophy art history and cultural studies Daily Life of the Sky-Mending Person Jeffrey Sanders,2016-04-20 In front of the gate of Mingxing Middle School a young boy held up a wooden sign in his hand allowing his classmates who were leaving school to watch and laugh at him September 12 Gregory Smithsimon,2011-10-01 The collapse of the World Trade Center shattered windows across the street in Battery Park City throwing the neighborhood into darkness and smothering homes in debris Residents fled In the months and years after they returned they worked to restore their community Until September 11 Battery Park City had been a secluded wealthy enclave just west Wall Street one with all the opulence of the surrounding corporate headquarters yet with a gated suburban feel

After the towers fell it became the most visible neighborhood in New York This ethnography of an elite planned community near the heart of New York City s financial district examines both the struggles and shortcomings of one of the city s wealthiest neighborhoods In doing so September 12 discovers the vibrant exclusivity that makes Battery Park City an unmatched place to live for the few who can gain entry Focusing on both the global forces that shape local landscapes and the exclusion that segregates American urban development Smithsimon shows the tensions at work as the neighborhood s residents mobilized to influence reconstruction plans September 12 reveals previously unseen conflicts over the redevelopment of Lower Manhattan providing a new understanding of the ongoing reciprocal relationship between social conflicts and the spaces they both inhabit and create

Conflicted Identities Alexandra Staub, 2015-10-23 Nation states have long used representational architecture to create symbolic identities for public consumption both at home and abroad Government buildings major ensembles and urban plans have a visibility that lends them authority while their repeated portrayals in the media cement their image as icons of a shared national character Existing in tandem with this official self however is a second often divergent identity represented by the vast realm of domestic space defined largely by those who occupy it as well as those with a vested interest in its cultural meaning Using both historical inquiry and visual spatial and film analysis this book explores the interaction of these two identities and its effect on political control class status and gender roles Conflicted Identities examines the politicization of both public and domestic space especially in societies undergoing rapid cultural transformation through political social or economic expansion or restructuring when cultural identity is being rapidly modernized shifted or realigned to conform to new demands Using specific examples from a variety of national contexts the book examines how vernacular housing legislation marketing and media influence a large but often underexposed domestic culture that runs parallel to a more publicly represented one As a case in point the book examines West Germany from the end of World War II to the early 1970s to probe more deeply into the mechanisms of such cultural dichotomy On a national level post war West Germany demonstratively rejected Nazi era values by rebuilding cities based on interwar modernist tenets while choosing a decidedly modern and transparent architecture for high visibility national projects In the domestic realm government media and everyday citizens countered this turn to state sponsored modernism by embracing traditional architectural aesthetics and housing that encouraged patriarchal family structures Written for readers interested in cultural theory history and the politics of space as well as those engaged with architecture and the built environment Conflicted Identities provides an engaging new perspective on power and identity as they relate to architectural settings Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States.
