Shaping The Lotus Sutra Buddhist Visual Culture In Medieval China:

Shaping the Lotus Sutra Eugene Yuejin Wang, 2005 The Lotus Sutra has been the most widely read and most revered Buddhist scripture in East Asia since its translation in the third century The miracles and parables in the king of sutras inspired a variety of images in China in particular the sweeping compositions known as transformation tableaux that developed between the seventh and ninth centuries Surviving examples in murals painted on cave walls or carved in relief on Buddhist monuments depict celestial journeys bodily metamorphoses cycles of rebirth and the achievement of nirvana Yet the cosmos revealed in these tableaux is strikingly different from that found in the text of the sutra Shaping the Lotus Sutra explores this visual world Challenging long held assumptions about Buddhist art Eugene Wang treats it as a window to an animated and spirited world Rather than focus on individual murals as isolated compositions Wang views the entire body of pictures adorning a cave shrine or a pagoda as a visual mapping of an imaginary topography that encompasses different temporal and spatial domains He demonstrates that the text of the Lotus Sutra does not fully explain the pictures and that a picture or a series of them constitutes its own text In exploring how religious pictures sublimate cultural aspirations he shows that they can serve both political and religious agendas and that different social forces can co exist within the same visual program These pictures inspired meditative journeys through sophisticated formal devices such as mirroring mapping and spatial programming analytical categories newly identified by Wang The book examines murals in cave shrines at Binglingsi and Dunhuang in northwestern China and relief sculptures in the grottoes of Yungang in Shanxi on stelae from Sichuan and on the Dragon and Tiger pagoda in Shandong among other sites By tracing formal impulses in medieval Chinese picture making such as topographic mapping and pictorial illusionism the author pieces together a wide range of visual evidence and textual sources to reconstruct the medieval Chinese cognitive style and mental world The book is ultimately a history of the Chinese imagination Read an interview with the author <http://dgeneratefilms.com/cinemataalk/cinemataalk-interview-with-professor-eugene-wang-on-chinese-art-and-film> Shaping the Lotus Sutra Eugene Y. Buddhist Practice and Visual Culture Julie Gifford, 2011-03-16 This is the first study to provide an overall interpretation of the Buddhist monument Borobudur in Indonesia Including both the narrative reliefs and the Buddha images the book opens up a wealth of information on Mahayana Buddhist religious ideas and practices that could have informed Borobudur and it convincingly interprets Borobudur within that context Presenting new material the book contributes immensely to a new and better understanding of the significance of the Borobudur for the field of Buddhist and Religious Studies Buddhist Visual Cultures, Rhetoric, and Narrative in Late Burmese Wall Paintings Alexandra Green, 2018-01-04 Step into a Burmese temple built between the late seventeenth and early nineteenth centuries and you are surrounded by a riot of color and imagery The majority of the highly detailed wall paintings displays Buddhist biographical narratives inspiring the devotees to follow the Buddha's teachings Alexandra Green goes one step further to consider the temples and their contents as a whole arguing that the wall paintings mediate the relationship between the architecture and the main Buddha statues in the temples This forges a unified space for the devotees to interact with the Buddha and his community with the aim of transforming the devotees current and future lives These temples were a cohesively articulated and represented Burmese Buddhist world to which the devotees belonged Green s visits to more than 160 sites with identifiable subject matter form the basis of this richly illustrated volume which draws upon art historical anthropological and religious studies methodologies to analyze the wall paintings and elucidate the contemporary religious political and social concepts that drove the creation of this lively art form Buddhist Visual Cultures Rhetoric and Narrative in Late Burmese Wall Paintings is truly a tour de force that allows us to see Burmese temple paintings of the Life of the Buddha and similar themes as an open ended genre that like literary discourse participates in wider social intellectual and religious contexts Juliane Schober Arizona State University Alexandra Green introduces this relatively unknown material and subjects it to sophisticated analysis This study is major step towards creating a template that could be used for analyzing other late traditions of Buddhist painting Janice Leoshko University of Texas at Austin Visual and Material Cultures in Middle Period China, 2017-07-20 Eight studies examine key features of Chinese visual and material cultures ranging from tomb design metalware ceramic pillows and bronze mirrors to printed illustrations calligraphic rubbings colophons and paintings on Buddhist landscape and narrative themes Questions addressed include how artists and artisans made their works the ways both popular literature and market forces could shape ways of looking and how practices and imagery spread across regions The authors connect visual materials to funeral and religious practices drama poetry literati life travel and trade showing ways visual images and practices reflected adapted to and reproduced the culture and society around them Readers will gain a stronger appreciation of the richness of the visual and material cultures of Middle Period China The Spatiality of Emotion in Early Modern China Ling Hon Lam, 2018-05-15 Emotion takes place Rather than an interior state of mind in response to the outside world emotion per se is spatial at turns embedding us from without transporting us somewhere else or putting us ahead of ourselves In this book Ling Hon Lam gives a deeply original account of the history of emotions in Chinese literature and culture centered on the idea of emotion as space which the Chinese call emotion realm qingjing Lam traces how the emotion realm underwent significant transformations from the dreamscape to theatricality in sixteenth to eighteenth century China Whereas medieval dreamscapes delivered the subject into one illusory mood after another early modern theatricality turned the dreamer into a spectator who is no longer falling through endless oneiric layers but pausing in front of the dream Through the lens of this genealogy of emotion realms Lam remaps the Chinese histories of morals theater and knowledge production which converge at the emergence of sympathy redefined as the dissonance among the dimensions of the emotion realm pertaining to theatricality The book challenges the conventional reading of Chinese literature as premised on interior subjectivity examines historical changes in the spatial logic of performance through media and theater archaeologies and ultimately uncovers the different trajectories that brought China and the West to the convergence point of theatricality marked by self deception and mutual misreading A major rethinking of key terms in Chinese culture from a comparative perspective The Spatiality of Emotion in Early Modern China develops a new critical vocabulary to conceptualize history and existence Visualising China, 1845-1965 Christian Henriot, Wen-hsin Yeh, 2012-11-09 In Visualizing China the authors launch a broad inquiry aimed at a synergistic understanding of the story of visuality in modern China The essays cluster around several nodal points including photographs advertising posters and movies from the 1840s to the 1960s The Oxford Handbook of Buddhist Practice Paula Kane Robinson Arai, Kevin Trainor, 2022 Foregrounds the impact of embodiment in Buddhism Highlights the diversity and fluidity of Buddhist identities The most comprehensive available volume on Buddhist practice Book jacket Knowledge and Text Production in an Age of Print: China, 900-1400 Lucille Chia, Hilde de Weerd, 2011-02-17 The essays in this volume come mostly out of the conference First Impressions The Cultural History of Print in Imperial China 8th 14th centuries that took place at the Fairbank Center for East Asian Research Harvard University June 25 27 2007 Acknowledgements Capital Cities and Urban Form in Pre-modern China Victor Xiong, 2016-08-19 Luoyang situated in present day Henan province was one of the great urban centres of pre Qin and early imperial China the favoured site for dynastic capitals for almost two millennia This book the first in any Western language on the subject traces the rise and fall of the six different capital cities in the region which served eleven different dynasties from the Western Zhou dynasty when the first capital city made its appearance in Luoyang to the great Tang dynasty when Luoyang experienced a golden age It examines the political histories of these cities explores continuity and change in urban form with a particular focus on city layouts and landmark buildings and discusses the roles of religions especially Buddhism and illustrious city residents Overall the book provides an accessible survey of a broad sweep of premodern Chinese urban history Buddhism in Central Asia I, 2020-01-13 The ERC funded research project BuddhistRoad aims to create a new framework to enable understanding of the complexities in the dynamics of cultural encounter and religious transfer in pre modern Eastern Central Asia Buddhism was one major factor in this exchange for the first time the multi layered relationships between the trans regional Buddhist traditions Chinese Indian Tibetan and those based on local Buddhist cultures Khotanese Uyghur Tangut Khitan will be explored in a systematic way The first volume Buddhism in Central Asia Part I Patronage Legitimation Sacred Space and Pilgrimage is based on the start up conference held on May 23rd 25th 2018 at CERES Ruhr Universit t Bochum Germany and focuses on the first two of altogether six thematic topics to be dealt with in the project namely on patronage and legitimation strategy as well as sacred space and pilgrimage Burning for the Buddha James A. Benn, 2007-02-28 Burning for the Buddha is the first book length study of the theory and practice of abandoning the body self immolation in Chinese Buddhism It examines the hagiographical accounts of all those who made offerings of their own bodies and places them in historical social cultural and doctrinal context Rather than privilege the doctrinal and exegetical interpretations of the tradition which assume the central importance of the mind and its cultivation James Benn focuses on the ways in which the heroic ideals of the bodhisattva present in scriptural materials such as the Lotus Sutra played out in the realm of religious practice on the ground The Lotus Sūtra Donald S. Lopez, Jr.,2016-10-04 A concise and accessible introduction to the classic Buddhist text The Lotus Sutra is arguably the most famous of all Buddhist scriptures Composed in India in the first centuries of the Common Era it is renowned for its inspiring message that all beings are destined for supreme enlightenment Here Donald Lopez provides an engaging and accessible biography of this enduring classic Lopez traces the many roles the Lotus Sutra has played in its travels through Asia Europe and across the seas to America The story begins in India where it was one of the early Mahayana sutras which sought to redefine the Buddhist path In the centuries that followed the text would have a profound influence in China and Japan and would go on to play a central role in the European discovery of Buddhism It was the first Buddhist sutra to be translated from Sanskrit into a Western language into French in 1844 by the eminent scholar Eug ne Burnouf That same year portions of the Lotus Sutra appeared in English in The Dial the journal of New England s Transcendentalists Lopez provides a balanced account of the many controversies surrounding the text and its teachings and describes how the book has helped to shape the popular image of the Buddha today He explores how it was read by major literary figures such as Henry David Thoreau and Gustave Flaubert and how it was used to justify self immolation in China and political extremism in Japan Concise and authoritative this is the essential introduction to the life and afterlife of a timeless masterpiece Silver Screen Buddha Sharon A.

Suh,2015-01-29 How do contemporary films depict Buddhists and Buddhism What aspects of the Buddhist tradition are these films keeping from our view By repeatedly romanticizing the meditating monk what kinds of Buddhisms and Buddhists are missing in these films and why Silver Screen Buddha is the first book to explore the intersecting representations of Buddhism race and gender in contemporary films Sharon A Suh examines the cinematic encounter with Buddhism that has flourished in Asia and in the West in the past century from images of Shangri La in Frank Capra s 1937 Lost Horizon to Kim Ki Duk s 2003 international box office success Spring Summer Fall Winter and Spring The book helps readers see that representations of Buddhism in Asia and in the West are fraught with political gendered and racist undertones Silver Screen Buddha draws significant attention to ordinary lay Buddhism a form of the tradition given little play in popular film By uncovering the differences between a fictionalized commodified and exoticized Buddhism Silver Screen Buddha brings to light expressions of the tradition that highlight laity and women on the one hand and Asian and Asian Americans on the other Suh engages in a re visioning of Buddhism that expands the popular understanding of the tradition moving from the dominance of meditating monks to the everyday world of raced gendered and embodied lay Buddhists Yungang Joy Lidu Yi,2017-11-13 The first ever comprehensive analysis of its kind in any western language this unique volume provides a social art history of Yungang a 5th century rock cut court cave complex UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the greatest Buddhist monuments of all time Yungang asks why when and under what circumstances this impressive cave sanctuary was made and who played significant roles at various stages Recent economic changes in China including the expansion of roads have led to unprecedented numbers of objects being unearthed on site and near the cave chapels Archaeological discoveries in 2010 have shed significant new light on the architectural configuration of monasteries in the capital and the functions of different sections of the cave complex as well as monastic life within it For the first time it is possible to reconstruct where the monks lived and translated sacred literary texts and to fully understand that freestanding monasteries are an important component of the rock cut cave complex Illustrated throughout with remarkable full colour photographs this re examination of the cave chapels which brings together previous scholarship primary documentation and more than a decade of first hand field research will not only fill in the gaps in our knowledge about Yungang but also raise and perhaps answer new questions in art history

Appearance Politics Lex Lu,2024-11-15 In Appearance Politics Lex Lu argues that crafting an appealing and powerful outward image has long been a critical political tool in China This strategy is evident in historical records imperial portraits physiognomic assessments photographs posters statues and digital images Using rare archival materials from Beijing Shanghai and Nanjing Lu explores how political figures designed their images and examines the shifting standards of male beauty that shaped their choices The book analyzes five case studies Ming Prince Zhu Di s usurpation the rise of Manchu masculinity and blended Han Manchu beauty standards under Emperor Yongzheng modern photography and Western beauty ideals in the early 20th century Sun Yat sen s crafted image as the Republican founding father and Mao Zedong s iconic visual legacy Through this empirical nuanced study Appearance Politics challenges stereotypical portrayals of Chinese male leadership in Western media and scholarship offering a richer understanding of appearance as a deliberate political strategy
