Robinson, Kirsten Stalker, 1998-01-01 This book encompasses a wide range of perspectives on childhood impairment and its social implications. The book adopts a child-centred approach stressing the importance of communicating with disabled children and includes pieces of writing by young disabled people. Preschool and school-age children describe their behavior and feelings within their own families, substitute families, and residential homes. The book explores how such children can best be protected and how their quality of life can be improved. Using the social model of disability, which identifies the material and social barriers to inclusion, contributors give examples of progressive practice and examine the aspirations of young disabled people, their friendships, and how they come to terms with adolescence and the transition to adulthood. A Textbook of Children's and Young People's Nursing E-Book Edward Alan Glasper, James Richardson, 2010-05-19 This popular textbook is aimed at children's nurses in a wide range of practice settings, including primary, ambulatory, and tertiary care. Covering the full age and specialty spectrum, this text brings together chapters from among the best-known children's nurses in the UK. It describes family-centred child healthcare, drawing upon practice throughout the UK and further afield. This innovative text provides up-to-date information on a wide range of topics. Each chapter offers readers additional material on Evolve. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations that facilitate interactive learning augment the written chapters and provide information not normally possible in a standard textbook, e.g. colour photographs, video clips. Although intended for nurses, the book adopts an interprofessional problem-solving and reflective approach aimed at students, practitioners, and child health educators. Material is offered from levels 1, 3, and some of the ancillary material extends into the postgraduate arena. Each chapter offers readers additional material on an Evolve website. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations augment the written chapters and provide extra information that includes case studies, moving image photographs, and text. Aims, objectives, learning outcomes, a summary box in each chapter, and key points assist learning and understanding. Professional conversation boxes enliven the text on the page and make it more interesting to dip into. Suggestions for seminar discussion topics to help teachers. Case studies help to relate theory to practice. Prompts to promote reflective practice. Activity boxes suggested visits. Evidence-based practice boxes which highlight key research studies, annotated bibliographies including details of web sites, and full contemporary references to the evidence base. Resource lists including recommended web site addresses. New chapter on blood disorders of childhood. New material on caring for young people and transitions in care. More on childhood eczema, childhood and adolescent mental health, solid tumours of childhood. Law, Rights and Disability Jeremy Cooper, 2000-12-01 This comprehensive volume assesses the relationship between legal rights and disability and the effect of law, legal process, and third-party professional intervention on the lives of people with disabilities. The contributors, who are all either academics or other professional experts in their field, write in a jargon-free, accessible style. Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror, 1992 Social Work and Health Care Rex Taylor, Jill Ford, 1989 Journal of Intellectual Disability Research, 1992 Health Care Needs Assessment Dr. Andrew Stevens, 2004 Providing vital updates, this two volume set describes the central role and aim of health care needs assessment in the NHS health care reforms and explains the epidemiological approach to needs assessment and the effectiveness and availability of services      Social Service Abstracts ,1990-04      Innovations in Family Support for People with Learning Disabilities Peter J.
