

A Celebration of Life for

Hannah Erickson-Diehl

will be held

October 5th at 1 PM at the I BAR Ranch Service followed by food and drink to celebrate her life between friends and family.

Her Story

It is with deep sadness we announce the untimely passing of Hannah Erickson-Diehl on 9-26-24 in Gunnison, Colorado.

Hannah was born on April 18th, 1995 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Life brought her to Gunnison in the fall of 2013 to attend college where she excelled in Track and Field and studied Biology. Her outgoing nature led her to her husband Andrew Diehl. Together, their desire to help their community inspired them both to join the Law Enforcement profession. Hannah enjoyed being an outdoor adventurer, and was a lover of animals, arts and crafts, flowers...especially sunflowers...dinosaurs and exercise. They experienced their greatest joy on September 10th, 2024 with the birth of their first child, a beautiful baby girl, Eleanor Mae. As Andrew & Hannah were preparing for their first nature walk, Hannah collapsed and passed away shortly after. Hannah is survived by her Husband Andrew, baby Daughter Eleanor, Mother, Father, Sister Two Brothers, Nephew and extended family.

Her memory will live on in everyone who knew her and their responsibility to her memory, will be to share their memories of Hannah with Eleanor as she grows, so she may too, know the mother she will forever miss.

A First Responder's procession will be departing from Cross Fit in Gunnison to Hwy 50 and then to the I-BAR Ranch. Please take a few minutes to observe the passing at some point on the route if you are able.

Hannah loved sunflowers. We encourage anyone planning on attending to wear jeans and a YELLOW shirt

Performing Oaths in Classical Greek Drama Judith Fletcher, 2011-11-24 Oaths were ubiquitous rituals in ancient Athenian legal commercial civic and international spheres Their importance is reflected by the fact that much of surviving Greek drama features a formal oath sworn before the audience This is the first comprehensive study of that phenomenon The book explores how the oath can mark or structure a dramatic plot at times compelling characters like Euripides Hippolytus to act contrary to their best interests It demonstrates how dramatic oaths resonate with oath rituals familiar to the Athenian audiences Aristophanes Lysistrata and her accomplices for example swear an oath that blends protocols of international treaties with priestesses vows of sexual abstinence By employing the principles of speech act theory this book examines how the performative power of the dramatic oath can mirror the status quo but also disturb categories of gender social status and civic identity in ways that redistribute and confound social authority

Saltwater Mary Eyring, 2025-02-18 Death is easy to locate in the archives of early America Grief is not so easily pinned down Yet it was a near constant companion for the men and women that settled in what is now New England Their lives were a kaleidoscope of small scale tragedies that suffused and colored everyday experiences This pervasive suffering was exacerbated by unfamiliar environments and exposure to the anguish of Indigenous and Black Americans unsettling well worn frameworks to produce new dimensions of everyday grief Mary Eyring traces these fleeting often mundane glimpses of grief in the archives a note about a sailor maimed during a whaling voyage the hint of a miscarriage in a court record the suggestion of domestic violence within a tract on witchcraft a house sent up in flames at the opening of a captivity narrative to show how the cumulative weight of grief created a persistent mood that influenced public and private affairs in sweeping ways largely unexamined by previous scholars With piercing insights and evocative prose Eyring follows grief across generations and oceans to reveal a language of suffering understood and shared across diverse early American communities

Meriwether, 2013-01-16 Commemorative practices are revised and rebuilt based on the spirit of the time in which they are re created Historians sometimes imagine that commemoration captures history but actually commemoration creates new narratives about history that allow people to interact with the past in a way that they find meaningful As our social values change race gender religion sexuality class our commemorations do too We Are What We Remember The American Past Through Commemoration analyzes current trends in the study of historical memory that are particularly relevant to our own present our biases our politics our contextual moment and strive to name forgotten overlooked and denied pasts in traditional histories Race gender and sexuality for example raise questions about our most treasured myths where were the slaves at Jamestowne How do women or lesbians protect and preserve their own histories when no one else wants to write them Our current social climate allows us to question authority and especially the authoritative definitions of nation patriotism and heroism and belonging How do we un commemorate things that were mis commemorated in the past How do we repair the damage done by past commemorations The chapters in this book contributed by eighteen emerging and established scholars examine these modern questions that entirely reimagine the landscape of commemoration as it has been practiced and studied before

Talking Books G. O. Hutchinson, 2008-08-14 Increasing importance is being attached to how Greek and Latin books of poems were arranged but such research has often been carried out with little attention to the physical fragments of actual ancient poetry books In this extensive study Gregory Hutchinson investigates the design of Greek and Latin books of poems in the light of papyri including recent discoveries A series of discussions of major poems and collections from two central periods of Greek and Latin literature is framed by a substantial and illustrated survey of poetry books and reading and by a more theoretical discussion of structures involving books The main poets discussed are Callimachus Apollonius Posidippus Catullus Horace and Ovid a chapter on Latin didactic includes Lucretius Virgil Ovid and Manilius Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1910 Church Doctrine, Volume 3 Paul C. The Case Against Lawyers

Catherine Crier, 2003-09-23 THE EMMY AWARD WINNING HOST OF COURT TV S CATHERINE CRIER LIVE DESCRIBES AN AMERICAN LEGAL SYSTEM DANGEROUSLY OUT OF CONTROL AND FINDS THE LAWYERS GUILTY AS CHARGED As a child Catherine Crier was enchanted by film portrayals of crusading lawyers like Clarence Darrow and Atticus Finch As a district attorney private lawyer and judge herself she saw firsthand how the U S justice system worked and didn t One of the most respected legal journalists and commentators today she now confronts a profoundly unfair legal system that produces results and profits for the few and paralysis frustration and injustice for the many Alexis de Tocqueville s dire prediction in Democracy in America has come true We Americans have ceded our responsibility as citizens to resolve the problems of society to legal authorities and with it our democratic freedoms The Case Against Lawyers is both an angry indictment and an eloquent plea for a return to common sense It decries a system of laws so complex even the enforcers such as the IRS cannot understand them It unmask a litigation crazed society where billion dollar judgments mostly line the pockets of personal injury lawyers It deplores the stupidity of a system of liability that leads to such results as a label on a stroller that warns Remove child before folding It indicts a criminal justice system that puts minor drug offenders away for life yet allows celebrity murderers to walk free And it excoriates the sheer corruption of the iron triangle of lawyers bureaucrats and politicians who profit mightily from all this inefficiency injustice and abuse The Case Against Lawyers will make readers hopping mad And it will make them realize that the only response can be to demand change Now
