resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children's literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children. Specifically focused on infants through the third grade, Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations, instructive commentary, and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years. Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children's literature. Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection. Genre chapters include poetry, fantasy, and realistic and historical fiction. A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction.

Sharing the Journey Robert Wuthnow, 1996-07-01 A look at how support groups have affected American society argues that although support groups provide a warmth and security that holds society together, they can lead to an unhealthy self-absorption and a trivialized sense of what is sacred.

2013 Easter Journey: Encounters with Jesus Danielle Baird, Carol Nowlin, 2012-11-09 The following Bible studies were created by Waiting for Water and a team of volunteer authors from across the country. They are designed for use by small groups meeting weekly throughout the Lenten and Easter season.
