Sharing Sam Katherine Applegate, 2004 Originally published in mass market paperback this is the timeless poignant novel of two friends one of whom is dying who both fall for the same boy

Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley, 2023-10-10 Social and emotional learning is at the heart of good teaching but as standards and testing requirements consume classroom time and divert teachers focus these critical skills often get sidelined In Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley shows teachers how to incorporate social and emotional learning into a busy day and then extend these skills to literacy lessons for young children Through simple activities such as read alouds sing alongs murals and performances students learn how to get along in a group empathize with others develop self control and give and receive feedback all while becoming confident readers and writers As Buckley shares Every day we ask young children to respectfully converse question debate and collaborate about literature science math problems history and more That s sophisticated stuff and requires sophisticated skills Social and emotional skills are essential to helping children communicate their knowledge and articulate their questions We must teach students how to build respectful caring classroom communities where students are supported and fully engaged in the learning and everyone can reach their potential In this fresh and original book Buckley captures the humor wonder honesty and worries of our youngest learners and helps teachers understand how to harness their creativity and guide their conversations toward richer expressions of knowledge Teachers of special populations will especially appreciate Buckley s successful strategies for reaching English language learners and children from high poverty homes who may not have strong foundations for academic discourse As Buckley reminds us By understanding one another orally and socially at first then using those community building exchanges to strengthen the skills of reading and writing we experience the authentic pride and sweet joys of learning understanding and connecting to one another

Sharing God's Passion Paul Hedley Jones, 2025-08-28 This book seeks to illuminate the critical role the prophets played in God s overarching purposes for his creation and how we in the 21st century may also learn to collaborate with God Sharing God's Passion provides a comprehensive overview of the various dimensions of a prophetic spirituality through a series of seventeen studies each based on events in the life of the prophets starting with Moses through to the early church including two chapters on Jesus The studies offer in depth analyses of biblical texts suggestions for life application and questions for personal reflection or group discussion

Caring is Sharing? Katherine Twamley, 2024-11-06 Caring is Sharing explores why and how mixed sex couples make decisions around parental leave at the transition to parenthood and how these decisions shape their work and family care practices during and after the leave period It does this through a longitudinal qualitative comparative analysis of mixed sex parent couples in England who do and do not share parental leave after the birth of their first child The study shows that men and women s visions and practices of family life are embedded in ideals of appropriate intimate relations and negotiated with real and imagined reactions from peers wider family and colleagues These negotiations are often deeply emotional and shape how parents navigate the wider institutional and structural context in the UK where parental leave policy family and work norms are highly gendered The book shows that practices of couple intimacy in the UK influence the imaginaries of new parents and the processes through which they enact divisions of parental leave and ultimately of care In so doing it highlights the intersections of intimacy and equality contributing to debate around the stalled gender revolution and what is needed if UK parental leave policy is to become an effective driver of change in gender relations and family life Praise for Caring is Sharing Katherine Twamley's beautifully crafted book Caring is Sharing makes significant contributions to scholarly and public understandings of parents' relational negotiations and experiences of caring while sharing or not sharing parental leave time and the complexities of measuring policy effects This book embodies Twamley's outstanding qualitative research skills I was moved by her analysis of narratives of care and intimacy and impressed by her stellar parental leave policy recommendations Andrea Doucet Canada Research Chair in Gender Work and Care Brock University author of Do Men Mother This is what excellent sociology looks like Twamley presents us with an empirically grounded robust analysis of a pressing social issue the low take up of shared parental leave and in the process does some deep conceptual work that really extends scholarship in the fields of family gender and intimacy Rich poignant and beautifully readable I cannot recommend this book highly enough Dr Charlotte Faircloth UCL Social Research Institute A riveting good read using state of the art scholarly research to offer timely messages about gender equality outcomes for heterosexual couples trying to combine infant care and paid employment and shared parental leave policies A must read for anyone with an interest in parenting fairness and making a more liveable world Lynn Jamieson University of Edinburgh This book presents a rich analysis that explores parents' decisions about shared parental leave and how these decisions later affect their divisions of labour Through detailed quotes and anecdotes Dr Twamley reveals the promises and pitfalls of SPL providing recommendations on how leave policies may better promote gender equality Richard J Petts Ball State University
