Sharing The Word:

Sharing the Word Lucy Atkinson Rose,1997-01-01 Lucy Atkinson Rose proposes a nonhierarchical communal relationship between pastor and congregation that questions traditional assumptions of preaching and offers insight from those on the margin and those outside the field of homiletics She invites preachers to practice a style of conversational preaching rooted in connectedness and a sense of mutuality between preacher and worshipers The Word and Words Made Flesh , In this spiritual autobiography the author focuses on eight segments of the life and work of Jesus their application to the ministerial vocation in the world today and the particular mission of the Presbyterian clergyman over the past seventy five years Devout in his faith and beliefs the author maintains a unique perspective I perceive my life as well as the lives of others in a rather different vein than does society in general he says I sense my life and the lives of others as God breathed life and lives coming from God And in a sense the Word and words made flesh in each event From his specialized viewpoint he reveals the role of God and ministry in his life a life that in the end will span no more than the space of two of God s breaths The Buildings Erected at Port Sunlight and Thornton Hough William Hesketh Lever Leverhulme (Viscount),1902 The Expository Times James Hastings,Ann Wilson Hastings,Edward Hastings,1892 Verbal Transformation, Despair, and Hope in The Waste Land Shudong Chen,2022-04-13 Based closely in spirit upon the most recent development in prosodic studies Verbal Transformation Despair and Hope in The Waste Land attempts another round of philosophical investigation The book demonstrates how The Waste Land could be read afresh in terms of the hidden verbal transformation that reveals the overlooked performative and collaborative nature of language This verbal transformation makes The Waste Land flow naturally as truly rhythmical creation of meaningful beauty the way Poe defines poetry especially through what Eliot calls auditory imagination or what Herder calls intermediary sensation that makes the poetry the first language of humanity or the dictionary of the soul The verbal transformation also serendipitously makes sounds of despair the sounds of hope The Cambridge Companion to Hans Urs Von Balthasar Edward T. Oakes,David Moss,2004-08-05 Publisher s description Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 is one of the most prolific creative and wide ranging theologians of the twentieth century who is just now coming to prominence But because of his own daring speculations about the meaning of Christ s descent into hell after the crucifixion about the uniqueness of Christ as savior of a pluralistic world and because he draws so many of his resources for his theology from literature drama and philosophy Balthasar has never been an easily categorized theologian He is neither liberal nor conservative neither Thomist nor modernist and he seems to elude all attempts to capture the exact way he creatively reinterprets the tradition of Christian thought For that reason this Companion is singularly welcome bringing together a wide range of theologians both to outline and to assess the work of someone whom history will surely rank someday with Origen John Calvin and Karl Barth Diagnostic Interviews in Number Sense Hazel Denvir,2002 A pioneering assessment resource for the primary classroom One to one interviews help
