Shark Attacks Of The Twentieth Century From The Pacific Coast Of North America:

Shark Attacks of the Twentieth Century Ralph S. Collier, 2003 This is the single most historically valuable book ever written on the subject of Pacific Coast shark attacks Through bone chilling accounts in victims own words never before published photographs and detailed maps and charts of attack locations this book accurately chronicles every known unprovoked shark attack that occurred along the Pacific Coast of North America during the entire Twentieth Century The author s examination of wound characteristics recurring locations and the curious phenomenon of attacks on inanimate objects afford astonishing insights into why sharks attack These insights form the foundation for his safety recommendations to specific ocean user groups Based on 40 years of research this book will be of inestimable value to scientists researchers and educators as well as anyone that might venture into the waters off the Pacific Coast The understanding gained from this book will temper fears with knowledge and provide the reader with clear and specific information that may easily make the difference between life and death

Great White Sharks Preserved in European Museums Alessandro De Maddalena, 2009-03-26 The Author has condensed virtually everything that is known about the great white sharks that are preserved in European museums in this book Available data of 105 great white sharks from 45 institutions is presented herein Most material consists of taxidermied specimens and jaws Most specimens with known capture locations come from the Mediterranean Sea The majority of specimens are very old The jaws belonging to the Biblioteca Ambrosiana in Milan dated from at least 1640 1660 are the oldest white shark material preserved in Europe The largest specimens of which parts are preserved in any European museum may be those of which skeletal parts are preserved in the Museo di Anatomia Comparata of Rome Italy and the Museo Zoologico La Specola of Florence Italy The cast of a 5 65 m female great white shark preserved in the Mus e cantonal de Zoologie of Lausanne is the world s largest that has been reconstructed directly from a whole specimen The largest skin mounted specimen is a 5 22 m female preserved in the Museo Civico di Storia Naturale of Trieste The 1 50 m female preserved in the Senckenberg Forschungsinstitut und Naturmuseum of Frankfurt is the smallest taxidermied white shark preserved in Europe The publication also includes a concise general account of white shark evolution anatomy physiology reproduction feeding attacks on humans and fishery Up to date literature references are included Extensively researched this encyclopedic account is enhanced by many photographs and drawings that bring to life the extraordinary world of the great white shark The ease of reading of the book and its thoroughness will make it a welcomed addition to any naturalist s library

Sharks in the Shallows W. Clay Creswell, 2021-06-14 A detailed account of over one hundred shark related incidents on the coast of the Carolinas from a shark bite investigator Powerful and mysterious sharks inspire both fascination and fear Worldwide oceans are home to some five hundred species and of those fifty six are known to reside in or pass through the waters off the coast of both North and South Carolina At any given time waders swimmers and surfers enjoying these waters are frequently within just one hundred feet of a shark While it s unnerving to know that sharks often swim just below the surface in the shallows W Clay Creswell a shark bite investigator for the Shark Research Institute s Global Shark Attack File explains that attacks on humans are extremely rare In 2019 the International Shark Attack File confirmed sixty four unprovoked attacks on humans including three in North Carolina and one in South Carolina While acknowledging that they pose real dangers to humans Creswell believes the fear of sharks is greatly exaggerated During his sixteen year association with the Shark Research Institute he has investigated more than one hundred shark related incidents and has maintained a database of all shark human encounters along the Carolina coastlines back to 1817 Creswell uses this data to expose the truth and history of this often sensationalized topic Beyond the statistics related to attacks in the Carolina waters Sharks in the Shallows offers a history of shark human interactions and an introduction to the world of shark attacks Creswell details the conditions that increase a person s chances of an encounter profiles the three species most often involved in attacks and reveals the months and time of day with the highest probability of an encounter With a better understanding of sharks responses to their environment and what motivates them to attack humans he hopes people will develop a greater appreciation of the invaluable role sharks play in our marine environment researched work presents the study's findings for the first time releasing a trove of information on the great white's size distribution habitat behavior reproduction diet fisheries and attacks on humans With 596 records of great white sharks from the entire Mediterranean Sea this volume represents the most complete and comprehensive study on the species in that region and constitutes a rich resource for historians scientists fishermen and divers

Sharks of the Pacific Northwest Alessandro De Maddalena, Antonella Preti, Tarik Polansky, 2007 Those who think of sharks as something only found in tropical waters will be surprised to learn that there are 18 species of sharks in the cool waters of the Pacific Northwest from the 27 inch brown catshark to the 39 foot basking shark Sharks of the Pacific Northwest provides for the identification of these species with spectacular photographs and accurate paintings and drawings plus summaries of the sharks classification morphology distribution habitat diet reproduction and behaviour It also includes a concise general account of shark evolution anatomy and physiology as well as discussion of attacks on humans and details of shark fisheries It is primarily aimed at a broad non technical readership but its up to date and detailed contents make it a useful tool for professional biologists and zoologists

The Devil's Teeth Susan Casey, 2006-05-30 A journalist's obsession brings her to a remote island off the California coast home to the world's most mysterious and fearsome predators and the strange band of surfer scientists who follow them Susan Casey was in her living room when she first saw the great white sharks of the Farallon Islands their dark fins swirling around a small motorboat in a documentary These sharks were the alphas among alphas some longer than twenty feet and there were too many to count even more incredible this congregation was taking place just twenty seven miles off the coast of San Francisco In a matter of months Casey was being hoisted out of the early winter swells on a crane up a cliff face to the barren surface of Southeast Farallon Island dubbed by sailors in the 1850s the devil's teeth There she joined Scot Anderson and Peter Pyle the two biologists who bunk down during shark season each fall in the island's one habitable building a haunted 135 year old house spackled with lichen and gull guano Two days later she got her first glimpse of the famous terrifying jaws up close and she was instantly hooked her fascination soon yielded to obsession and an invitation to return for a full season But as Casey readied herself for the eight week stint she had no way of preparing for what she would find among the dangerous forgotten islands that have banished every campaign for civilization in the past two hundred years The Devil's Teeth is a vivid dispatch from an otherworldly outpost a story of crossing the boundary between society and an untamed place where humans are neither wanted nor needed

Carnivore Minds Gay A. Bradshaw, 2017-01-01 An unprecedented scientific journey into the minds and experiences of grizzlies sharks rattlesnakes crocodiles and other carnivores we wrongly stereotype

Surfer Magazine's Guide to Northern and Central California Surf Spots The Editors of Surfer Magazine, 2006-05-04 Surfer Magazine offers the ultimate guide to catching the best waves from the redwood shores of the Oregon California border to the wind blasted coastal plains of San Luis Obispo County For more than 250 spots this sturdy manual sporting a water resistant covers delivers a clear assessment of wave quality prime wave conditions and local hazards both natural and manmade Informative text answers the burning questions that surfers often pose What tide What wind What swell How are the locals Are they worse than the sharks or the traffic With helpful maps photos and directions this Surfer's Guide is sure to become the gold standard for anyone looking to score the perfect wave

Shark Dean Crawford, 2008-08 In Shark Dean Crawford explores the long relationship between shark and man revealing that behind the fearsome caricature is a complex animal that deserves a thoughtful reconsideration

Global Perspectives on the Biology and Life History of the White Shark Michael L. Domeier, 2012-02-03 Inspired by the International White Shark Symposium in 2010 Global Perspectives on the Biology and Life History of the White Shark incorporates the most important contemporary research findings into a single peer reviewed book This beautifully illustrated reference represents a historic change in the context of White Shark Carcharodon carcharias research Once considered one of the most poorly understood and difficult sharks to study this timely book recognizes a new sophisticated focus on the White Shark raising its status from obscurity to enlightenment The Global Perspectives on the Biology and Life History of the White Shark celebrates the White Shark as the most studied shark in the sea Within the chapters one can find new insights into a vast range of topics such as behavior physiology migration patterns habitat preferences daily activity patterns molecular genetics reproductive biology and new research methods The book also delves into population monitoring and policy options for managers and researchers

Sharks Gene Helfman, George H. Burgess, 2014-05-15 Do sharks lay eggs or give birth to live young Do sharks sleep How long do they live How likely are shark attacks This book answers your questions about some of nature's most misunderstood animals Answering every conceivable question about sharks authors Gene Helfman and George H Burgess describe the fascinating biology behavior diversity there are more than 1 000 species worldwide and cultural importance of sharks their close relationship to skates and rays and their critical role in healthy ecosystems Helfman and Burgess take readers on a round the world tour of shark habitats which include oceans as well as lakes and even rivers as far up the Mississippi as St Louis They describe huge ferocious predators like Great White and Tiger sharks and species such as Basking and Whale sharks that feed on microscopic prey yet can grow to lengths of more than 40 feet The mysterious and powerful Greenland shark the authors explain reaches a weight of 2 200 pounds on a diet of seal flesh Small less than 2 foot long Cookiecutter sharks attack other sharks and even take a chunk out of the occasional swimmer Despite our natural fascination with sharks we have become their worst enemy Many shark species are in serious decline and a number are threatened with extinction as a result of overfishing and persecution

Sharks The Animal Answer Guide presents a perfect mix of current science history anthropology intriguing facts and gripping photographs Whether your fascination with sharks stems from fear or curiosity your knowledge of these animals will improve immensely when you consult this book

The Symplocaceae of Gaoligong Shan Lihua Zhou, 2006 Sharkdiver Magazine, 2003 Field Guide to the Great White Shark Richard Aidan Martin, ReefQuest Centre for Shark Research, 2003 Mako Sharks Alessandro De

Maddalena, Antonella Preti, Robert Smith, 2005 Mako sharks shortfin mako and longfin mako belong to the family Lamnidae which also includes the great white shark Makos have very ancient origins appearing in prehistoric oceans between 40 and 60 million years ago The elegant shape the curved prominent teeth and the tail shaped like a halfmoon make them unmistakable The shortfin mako can be considered among the fastest of all sharks since it can reach speeds of 35 56 km h and can jump out of the water to more than 6 meters in height Makos have the speed and agility to catch fast swimming prey such as tunas swordfishes and dolphins Some makos have been found with a swordfish bill driven into their body after fighting with prey Makos are considered dangerous animals attacks on divers swimmers and boats are known but are rare because these predators prefer offshore waters The shortfin mako is fished all over the world and is prized for the high quality of its meat Moreover its fighting temper makes it one of the most sought after prey by the sport fishermen Great White Sharks A. Peter Klimley, David G. Ainley, 1998-04-03 Now available in paperback the first comprehensive reference on Great White sharks separates fact from fiction and presents real evidence of the ecology and behavior of these remarkable animals The volume begins with the evolution of the white shark and its relatives and continues with sections on its anatomy behavior ecology distribution population dynamics and interactions with humans Included in the volume are many illustrations maps diagrams graphs and photos Covers all biological aspects of Great White sharks Includes contributions from an international team of leading authorities Heavily illustrated with maps diagrams graphs and photos Was Haie sind Juerg M.
