The Shark Chronicles John A. Musick, Beverly McMillan, 2002-04 Many animals elicit the same mythical terror and awe as sharks, and yet we know little about these elusive, highly engineered creatures. John A. Musick and Beverly McMillan bring us along on a thrilling adventure as they chase sharks from Bear Gulch, Montana, to a whale shark feeding station in Okinawa, by way of Alaska, the Bimini Islands, and the most sophisticated shark research labs in the world. En route, we discover that sharks navigate using electromagnetic signals, have a bloodhound's sense of smell, are both cold and warm-blooded, and possess biochemical weapons which, used properly, might indeed help fend off malignant tumors and microbes. Musick, who has spent over thirty years as a defender of the much maligned shark, here excavates the mysterious lives of sharks from the dark recesses of the oceans and raising the alarm about how fishing and industry are reducing their numbers and affecting their behavior This captivating and educational scientific exploration challenges us to rethink our relationship with sharks leaving us with the question Are humans the prey or the predator

Shark Richard Ellis,2012-04-17 The sharks ancient or modern real or imaginary have always been with us and will probably remain with us forever They appear not only in movies and literature but in countless permutations of size shape and materials permeating our daily lives with their silent menace In a sense humans live in a world replete with sharks not vice versa Thus Richard Ellis sets about chronicling and debunking the myths of sharks throughout history From 18th century art to the phenomena of JAWS the shark has remained the indomitable aggressor of the deep the last demon of humankind The image of the shark and the fear it inspires infiltrates our daily lives with its mythical power and strength But it is not man who should fear the shark Our need to dominate these predators is destroying them and their habitat Through hundreds of full color images Ellis proves the necessity of preserving these majestic creatures As curator of the Ft Lauderdale Museum of Art s exhibition entitled Shark debuting May 2012 Ellis adeptly turns these sleek efficient hunters from monsters of the deep into rare beautiful forces of nature
