Where Is History Today? Laura Mulvey, Frank Ankersmit, Daniel Pick, Tomáš Jirsa, Martin Elbel, Jiří Lach, 2015-02-05

History no longer belongs only to historians but is woven into the fabric and discourse of daily life This fresh and wide ranging survey explores how new media and new historiographic approaches are dramatically expanding what we understand by history today Controversy about the aims and limits of historical analysis has raged ever since the rise of postmodern history in the 1970s But these debates have rarely affected the understanding of history in Central and Eastern Europe The volume confirms the crucial importance of audiovisual and mass media from film to television and radio to comics but does not exclude literary scholars and art historians who are also rethinking their methods taking note of their new consumers If history formerly appeared to be a one way transmission of expertise it is increasingly a dynamic engagement between researchers and audiences
