The Things Things Say Jonathan Lamb, 2021-07-13 One of the new forms of prose fiction that emerged in the eighteenth century was the first person narrative told by things such as coins coaches clothes animals or insects This is an ambitious new account of the context in which these narratives became so popular What does it mean when property declares independence of its owners and begins to move and speak Jonathan Lamb addresses this and many other questions as he advances a new interpretation of these odd tales from Defoe Pope Swift Gay and Sterne to advertisements still life paintings and South Seas journals Lamb emphasizes the subversive and even nonsensical quality of what things say their interests are so radically different from ours that we either destroy or worship them Existing outside systems of exchange and the priorities of civil society things in fact advertise the dissident obscurity common to slave narratives all the way from Aesop and Phaedrus to Frederick Douglass and Primo Levi a way of meaning only what is said never saying what is meant This is what Defoe's Roxana calls the Sense of Things and it is found in sounds substances and images rather than conventional signs This major work illuminates not only its narratives but also eighteenth century literature the rise of the novel and the genealogy of the slave narrative

Narrative Naturalism Jessica Wahman, 2015-07-01 Narrative Naturalism An Alternative Framework for Philosophy of Mind provides an original framework for a non reductive approach to mind and philosophical psychology Jessica Wahman challenges the reductive i.e. mechanistic and physicalist assumptions that render the mind body problem intractable and claims that George Santayana's naturalism provides a more beneficial epistemological method and ontological framework for thinking about the place of consciousness in the natural world She uses Santayana's thought as the primary inspiration for her own specific viewpoint one that draws on a variety of sources from analytic philosophy of mind to existentialism and psychoanalysis This outlook narrative naturalism depicts sense making as a kind of storytelling where different narratives serve different purposes and Wahman offers a unique worldview to accommodate a variety of true expressions about the world including truths about subjective existence Motivated by a desire to challenge the reductionist approaches that explain human motivation and experience in terms of neuroscience and by the increasingly pharmacological interpretations of and solutions to psychological problems Wahman's overarching purpose is to reconstruct the issue so that neuroscience can be embraced as an indispensable story among others in our understanding of the human condition When placed in this context neurobiological discoveries better serve the values and practices associated with human self knowledge and well being Narrative Naturalism will appeal to those interested in American philosophy Santayana scholarship pragmatist epistemology philosophy of mind philosophical psychology and metaphysics The True Story of the Novel Margaret Anne Doody,1996 An erudite intelligent and imaginative work of literary scholarship With vivacity grace and wit Doody traces the history of the novel from the ancient novels of Apuleium and Heliodorus through the Renaissance fictions of Boccaccio Cervantes and Rabelais to the official birth of the novel in 18th century England BOSTON GLOBE 39 illustrations Dandy in Irish and American Southern Fiction Ellen Crowell,2007-11-19 This book identifies and interprets the longstanding ideological and aesthetic dialogue between the literary imaginations of Anglo Ireland and the Anglo American South It offers a rich comparative examination of nineteenth and twentieth century Irish and American Southern plantation literatures and their respective representations of race and nation gender and sexuality region and landscape and the gothic imagination Pairing major writers from both traditions including Maria Edgeworth William Faulkner Oscar Wilde Katherine Anne Porter and Elizabeth Bowen the book shows how this transatlantic dialogue coalesced around questions of power supremacy and gentility writers in Anglo Irish and Anglo Southern literary traditions recognized and spoke to each other through the discourse of aristocracy As the book demonstrates from the early nineteenth century onwards Irish and Anglo Southern writers conducted a sustained exploration into constructions of aristocracy through the figure of the dissipated deviant gentleman or lady the dandy By augmenting literary analysis with a variety of historical biographical archival and visual materials including nineteenth century trade cards original letters and twentieth century photographic portraits the book offers readers a wide ranging interdisciplinary illumination of transatlantic modernism
