Living With Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-14 First published in 1996 This book was produced as a companion to the Hospice Foundation of America's third annual teleconference The Foundation begun in 1982 is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing leadership in the development of hospice and its philosophy of care for terminally ill people The Foundation conducts educational programs related to hospice sponsors research on ethical questions as well as the economics of health care at the end of life and serves as a philanthropic presence within the national hospice community Close to 90 percent of hospices in the United States reach beyond their own patients and families to become in a variety of ways a community resource on grief and bereavement That is part of the hospice mission and an important service which the Hospice Foundation of America encourages and tries to support Our annual teleconference is a major part of our effort and it like all of our projects is largely underwritten by contributions from individuals The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of America

Death 101 Sandra Helene Straub, 2016-12-05 Human beings experience many losses in a lifetime but the death of a loved one is among the most traumatic While grieving is a natural part of life it still challenges our daily existence The purpose of Death 101 A Workbook for Educating and Healing 2nd edition is to provide an understanding of dying death and bereavement that will assist individuals to cope better with and understand their own death and the death of others It enables us to examine cultural attitudes and assumptions about dying and death Death 101 2nd edition introduces the dying process grief work and ethical and legal issues while providing personal insight and sensitivity The workbook is meant as a supplement to textbooks on dying and death to accompany the academic material necessary to increase our knowledge about death education At the same time it is intended to be an independent method of working through loss a personal guide for the journey through grief Death 101 2nd edition includes activities that may be used in part or in whole sequentially or at random by individuals or a group Different professionals including counselors teachers clergy medical personnel and caregivers may utilize these activities The therapeutic exercises in Death 101 2nd edition will help the lay reader cope effectively with loss and death and allow a more effective life when faced with grief Scattered throughout the workbook are stories poems and comments from others who have traveled through the grieving process Crisis Ministry Daniel G. Bagby, 2002 Covers more than 25 pastoral care crises arranged from A Z Abortion to Suicide Fading away Betty Davies PhD., 2020-03-26 This book comes out of an in depth qualitative study of the experiences of twenty three families in which one parent was dying of cancer The study attempted to better understand the impact of terminal illness on the entire family system and sought to develop a theoretical framework that would guide the assessment of and services to such families As a result of interviews with patients spouses and their adult children over three phases of the study the process of fading away was identified and conceptualized in terms of various phases which contributed to this process The book is not a research report but rather presents more generally the ideas that developed from the study with two purposes to increase the reader s understanding of particular experiences that families encounter when dealing with terminal illness specifically cancer The intended readership also includes families themselves to propose guidelines for care to be considered by practitioners working with such families Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill
