Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination Michael D. Burke, 2020-12-15 The essays in Maine s Place in the Environmental Imagination address from a variety of perspectives how Maine s unique identity among the states of the United States has been formed and what that identity is A place that is still imagined by others primarily through its environmental associations its nature and landscape rather than through its social arrangements and human history The collection attempts a foundational study not of a regional literature but of a state literature In doing so it makes the case that Maine was constructed imaginatively and environmentally through its literature and that this image is the one that endures even now The essays suggest how this identity was formed by discussing writings ranging from the recently recovered work of Joseph Nicolar a member of the Penobscot Nation in the late 19th century to the contemporary Maine author Carolyn Chute from Thoreau s canonical essay Ktaadn to the modernist E B White whose works have an under appreciated environmental project Contributors include scholars Nathaniel Lewis Annette Kolodny Linda Kornasky Daniel Malachuk Kent Ryden and Lynn Wake
