Betrays of the Body Politic Andrew V. Ettin, 1993 He examines the connection between the personal and the political showing that Gordimer has always seen the two as inseparable and that her understanding of this relationship has developed profoundly during her career Though the book is not biographical it explores more fully than any preceding publication Gordimer's attitudes toward feminism and her connections with her Jewish background thereby expanding our comprehension of her social context Ettin includes a succinct overview of her career and devotes each of six chapters to a major theme tracing and analyzing the themes as they recur in selected stories novels essays and interview reflections and as they have emerged in relation to circumstances of her own life The author sees Gordimer's work as a tool not of propaganda but of understanding a means of sharpening our perceptions of one another's lives

A Writing Life Nadine Gordimer, 1998 Nadine Gordimer began her writing life at a relatively young age In 1991 that life received the ultimate recognition when she was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature In this volume Gordimer who has been described by her peers as a formidable visitor from the future the leviathan of South African letters and almost always as a gifted writer with extraordinary powers of observation is paid homage by fellow writers from South Africa and other parts of the world The book comprises readings tributes fiction poetry interviews and photographs which engage directly and indirectly with Gordimer's work and her still unfolding legacy

A World of Strangers Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 Toby Hood a young Englishman shuns the politics and the causes his liberal parents passionately support Living in Johannesburg as a representative of his family's publishing company Toby moves easily carelessly between the complacent wealthy white suburbs and the seething vibrantly alive black townships His friends include a wide variety of people from mining directors to black journalists and musicians and Toby's colonial style weekends are often interspersed with clandestine evenings spent in black shanty towns Toby's friendship with Steven Sithole a dashing embittered young African touches him in ways he never thought possible and when Steven's own sense of independence from the rules of society leads to tragedy Toby's life is changed forever The Essential Gesture

Nadine Gordimer,1988 None to Accompany Me Nadine Gordimer,2004-02-01 None to Accompany Me is arresting and reverberant perhaps the most powerful novel to date by one of the world's most commanding writers In an extraordinary period immediately before the first non racial election and the beginning of majority rule in South Africa Vera Stark the protagonist of Nadine Gordimer's passionate novel weaves a ruthless interpretation of her own past into her participation into the present as a lawyer representing blacks in the struggle to reclaim the land Get a Life Nadine

Gordimer,2012-03-15 When Paul Bannerman an ecologist in Africa is diagnosed with cancer and prescribed treatment that makes him radioactive his suddenly fragile existence makes him question his life for the first time He is especially struck by the contradiction in values between his work as a conservationist and that of his wife an advertising agency executive Then when Paul moves in with his parents to protect his wife and young son from radiation the strange nature of his condition leads his mother to face her own past The House Gun Nadine Gordimer,2001-12-09 Nadine Gordimer's novel is a passionate narrative of the complex manifestations of that final test of human relations we call love It moves with the restless pace of living itself if it is a parable of present violence it is also an affirmation of the will to reconciliation that starts where it must between individual men and women Nadine Gordimer Michael Wade,1978 Nadine Gordimer Dominic

Head,1994-11-10 The award to Nadine Gordimer of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 was an affirmation of her distinctive contribution to twentieth century fiction and to the creation of a literature that challenges apartheid In this study which may be used as an introduction as well as by those already familiar with Gordimer's work Dominic Head discusses each of her novels in detail paying close attention to the texts both as a reflection of events and situations in the real world and as evidence of her constant rethinking of her craft Head shows how Gordimer's concerns apparent in her earliest novels are developed through increasing stress on the politics of textuality and he pursues the implications of this development to consider how Gordimer's later work contributes to postmodernist fiction and to a recentering of political engagement in an era of uncertainty Writing and Being Nadine Gordimer,1995 In this deeply resonant book Nobel Prize laureate Nadine

Gordimer examines the tension for a writer between life's experiences and narrative creations investigating where characters come from to what extent are they drawn from real life and using the writings of South African revolutionaries to show how their struggle is contrastingly expressed in factual fiction and in lyrical poetry No Time Like the Present

Nadine Gordimer,2012-03-15 Nadine Gordimer is one of our most telling contemporary writers With each new work she attacks with a clear eyed lack of sentimentality and an understanding of the darkest depths of the human soul the inextricable link between personal life and political communal history The revelation of this theme in each new work not only in her homeland South Africa but the twenty first century world is evidence of her literary genius in the sharpness of her psychological insights the stark beauty of her language the complexity of her characters and the difficult choices with which they are faced In No Time Like the Present Gordimer brings the reader into the lives of Steven Reed and Jabulile Gumede a mixed couple both of whom have been combatants in the struggle for freedom against apartheid Once clandestine lovers under racist law forbidding sexual relations between white and black they are now in the new South Africa The place and time where freedom the better life for all that was fought for and promised is being created but also challenged by political and racial tensions while the hangover of moral ambiguities and the vast and growing gap between affluence and mass poverty continue to haunt the present No freedom from personal involvement in these or in the personal intimacy of love The subject is contemporary but Gordimer's treatment is timeless In No Time Like the Present she shows herself once again a master novelist at the height of her prodigious powers

Nadine Gordimer Christopher Heywood, 1983 Nadine Gordimer 1923 2014 was a writer and political activist She received the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1991 In this 1983 study Christopher Heywood stresses the point that in her very first novel The Lying Days 1953 Gordimer besides weaving a delicate web of personal relations also takes a detached historical view of man as a haunted species on a complex planet a view not unlike that of Thomas Hardy and this evolutionary theme has persisted through her subsequent writing The first three novels 1953 63 are much concerned with the search for satisfactory personal relationships and may be juxtaposed with a well known essay of 1959 Where do Whites Fit In The next three 1966 74 explore the wider social tensions which produce tragedy Her latest novel July's People describes the unusual situation of a white family having to adapt its way of life to that of a black settlement in the Transvaal In a later section of his essay Christopher Heywood surveys the six collections of short stories each of them indicating a turning point in the development of the author's art and thought and together with her critical essay The Black Interpreters marking her growing understanding of society as seen from the black man's point of view

Occasion for Loving Nadine Gordimer, 2013-01-01 Jessie and Tom Stilwell keep open house Their code is one of people determined to maintain the integrity of personal relations against the distortions of law and society The impact on their home of Boaz Davis and his wife Ann arrived from England and Gideon Shibalo the Stilwells black friend with whom Ann starts a love affair as her adventure with Africa is dramatically concurrent with events involving Jessie's strange relationship with her mother and stepfather and her son from a previous marriage Telling their story against the background of South Africa in the sixties Nadine Gordimer speaks with unsurpassed subtlety and poignancy of individuals and the society in which they live

No Cold Kitchen Ronald Suresh Roberts, 2005 A comprehensive account of one of South Africa's most fascinating literary personalities More than just a chronicle of Gordimer's richly lived life this work gives the reader a window into the world a world both changing and much changed and an evolving world of political conflict and struggle of style and celebrity

Life Times Nadine Gordimer, 2011-10-25 Superb a series of masterly drawn glimpses into the storymaking art of one of Africa's great modern literary geniuses Alan Cheuse NPR A selection of short stories written to date by Nobel Laureate Nadine Gordimer Life Times reveals her acute understanding of human nature and paints a fascinatingly original portrait of South Africa Whether focusing on politics sexuality race love or loss Gordimer maps out the terrain of human relationships with razor sharp psychological insight and a stunning lack of sentimentality Complex and multifaceted her stories challenge us time and again to examine the conflict between our actions and our unspoken desires This powerful collection which includes two new stories is a testament to Gordimer's literary genius and the ongoing power and relevance of her vision
