Special Committee on Aging, 1979 Aging, 1972 The Elderly in Poor Urban Neighborhoods Valerie Slaughter Brown, 2017-10-12 First published in 1997 Considerable research has been done to identify neighbourhood influences on children's affective states motivation and behaviour This population along with the elderly are the nation's largest dependent groups In contrast little research has been done to determine what impact living among poor neighbours has upon older Americans specifically upon their psychological well being and neighbourhood satisfaction In this study the author has sought out to explore this deficit using a sociological standpoint to examine quality of life issues relevant to elderly inner city residents This title will be of interest to students of sociology and urban studies The Nation's Rural Elderly United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1961 Elderly People and the Environment Irwin Altman, M. Powell Lawton, Joachim F. Wohlwill, 2013-06-29 The present volume in our series follows the format of the immediately preceding ones in dealing with a topical theme of considerable importance in the environment and behavior field In view of current and projected demographic trends it is a certainty that a broad ranging set of issues concerned with the elderly and the physical environment will continue to be of focal pertinence if not of increasing importance in the remaining decades of this century The present volume also follows in the tradition of earlier volumes in the series in being eclectic with respect to content theory and methodology and in including contributions from a variety of disciplines such as anthropology economics psychology geography and urban and regional planning To have encompassed the whole array of disciplines and topics in this emerging field in a single volume would have been impossible We trust that the sample of contributions that we have selected is provocative and that it will illustrate the range of problems and topics and point to promising areas of study and analysis We are pleased to have M Powell Lawton as a guest co editor for this volume His broad ranging expertise perceptive judgment and fine editorial talents have contributed enormously to the volume Journal of the Senate, Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature. Senate, 1961 Neighborhood Upgrading David P. Varady, 1986-01-01

Neighborhood Upgrading examines the effectiveness of government subsidized housing rehabilitation programs in reversing patterns of neighborhood decline Varady takes a realistic look at the dilemma facing policy planners attempting to effect changes on a local level His is the first study to assess the impact of neighborhood ethnic and social class changes on mobility and investment decisions There has been little empirical research on neighborhood upgrading where improvement results from the efforts of existing residents aides by government assistance Varady study makes a major contribution in illuminating the variables of this process Focusing on the U S Department of Housing and Urban Development s Urban Homesteading Demonstration UHDS he presents disturbing findings that are applicable to other neighborhood preservation programs such as the Neighborhood Housing Service NHS and the Community Development Block Grant Program He argues that the future success of such programs lies in the ability of planners and policy makers to develop and implement policies addressing the issues that cause neighborhood decline poverty crime and discrimination
