her faith in the living God for deliverance from the forces of a decadent empire Daughter of Rome by Tessa Afshar When the daughter of a prominent Roman general meets a disinherited Jewish immigrant neither one can dream of God's plan to transform them into the most influential couple of the early church Nor can they anticipate the mountains that will threaten to bury them The Advocate by Randy Singer At the trial of Christ Theophilus brilliant young assessore raised in the Roman aristocracy stands behind Pontius Pilate and whispers Offer to release Barabbas The strategy backfires and Theophilus never forgets the sight of an innocent man unjustly suffering the worst of all possible deaths Roman crucifixion Three decades later Theophilus must face another evil Caesar defending the man Paul in Nero's deranged court Can Theophilus mount a defense that will keep another innocent man from execution The Brother's Keeper by Tracy Groot James knows that this year's Passover pilgrimage will be more important than ever Hearing about a possible plot against his brother Jesus he must find him and talk some sense into him before it's too late And he must decide for himself who his brother really is But on the dusty road to Jerusalem more than one faction has murder on its mind Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 My Paperback Book Julian Scutts,2016-03-29 As though we did not have enough gloom and doom talk already 2016 has not exactly got off to a good start However perhaps if we read between the lines we may detect signs of hope In Truth Matthew Fraser,2020-03-27 From ancient Rome to the current Internet age this sweeping history of ideas explores how different epochs wrestled with the issue of truth and lies From the ancient Greeks and Romans to the modern era how have people determined what is true How have those with power and influence sought to control the narrative Are we living in a post truth era or is that notion simply the latest attempt to control the narrative The relationship between truth and power is the key theme Moving through major historical periods the author focuses on notable people and events from well known leaders like Julius Caesar and Adolf Hitler to lesser known individuals like Procopius and Savonarola He notes distinct parallels in history to current events Julius Caesar's publication of his Gallic Wars and Civil Wars was an early exercise in political spin not unlike what we see today During the English Civil War and the Enlightenment pamphleteering coupled with the new power of the printing press challenged the status quo as online and social media does in our time And fake news was already being used by German chancellor Otto von Bismarck in nineteenth century Europe and by the yellow journalism of American newspaper magnates William Randolph Hearst and Joseph Pulitzer near the turn of the twentieth century The author concludes optimistically noting that we are debating and discussing truth more fiercely today than in any previous era The determination to arrive at the truth despite the manipulations of the powerful bodes well for the future of democracy
