Astell, 2019-11-30 Hailed in Sacred Scripture as the beginning of wisdom Ps 111:10 the fear of the Lord is seldom mentioned and little understood today A gift of the Spirit and a moral virtue or disposition the fear of the Lord also frequently entails emotional experiences of differing kinds compunction dread reverence wonderment and awe Starting with the Bible itself this collection of seventeen essays explores the place of holy fear in Christian spirituality from the early church to the present and argues that this fear is paradoxically linked in various ways to fear's seeming opposite love Indeed the charged dynamic of love and fear accounts for different experiences and expressions of Christian life in response to changing historical circumstances and events The writings of the theologians mystics philosophers saints and artists studied here reveal the relationship between the fear and the love of God to be profoundly challenging and mysterious its elements paradoxically conjoined in a creative tension with each other but also tending to oscillate back and forth in the history of Christian spirituality as first one then the other comes to the fore sometimes to correct a perceived imbalance sometimes at the risk of losing its companion altogether Given this historical pattern clearly evident in these chronologically arranged essays the palpable absence of a discourse of holy fear from the mainstream theological landscape should give us pause and invite us to consider if and how under what aspect in which contexts a holy fear inseparable from love might be regained or discovered anew within Christian spirituality as a remedy both for a crippling anxiety and for a presumptive recklessness This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Christian spirituality theology biblical studies religious studies and religion and literature Contributors Ann W Astell Pieter G R de Villiers Donna R Hawk Reinhard John Sehorn Catherine Rose Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Robert Boenig Ralph Keen Wendy M Wright Ephraim Radner Julia A Lamm Cyril O Regan Brenna Moore Maj Britt Frenze and Todd Walatka

Enlightening Revolutions Svetozar Minkov,Stéphane Douard,2007-01-01 The essays collected in this volume make a serious enlightened contribution to the history of political philosophy While offering striking new interpretations of crucial texts and events in the history of the West they illuminate fundamental questions of politics religion and philosophy

Blaise Pascal Blaise Pascal,Jean Mesnard,1964 Beyond the Contingent Kathleen A. Mulhern,2011-06-13 In light of the contemporary struggle between science and faith Kathleen Mulhern s timely exploration of late nineteenth century neo Pascalian thought both recovers a lost perspective on the war between science and religion and offers a fruitful angle of study for twenty first century reflection As the science vs religion rancor reached its early fury at the turn of the century many devout French Catholic intellectuals struggled with the increasingly dogmatic spirit in both the Roman Catholic Church and the scientific community The dominant ideology of scientism within the intellectual establishment of the Third Republic 1870 1940 collided with a growing authoritarianism within the Church expressed in the 1893 papal encyclical Providentissimus Physicist Pierre Duhem philosopher Maurice Blondel and priest Lucien Laberthonniere rejected the Roman Catholic Church s Thomistic methodology and sought intellectual inspiration instead in the philosophy of seventeenth century scientist mathematician philosopher and Christian apologist Blaise Pascal These neo Pascalians offered an alternative to the adversarial relationship between modern culture and orthodox Catholic faith but their ideas came to an abrupt and bitter conclusion when they ran afoul of Church authority The narrative and contribution of the neo Pascalians offers many insights and lessons that could helpfully inform the contemporary debates surrounding the dialogue between science and religion
