Far from Nothing Zoltán Böszörményi, 2006 Ripe with love money and power the story of 35 year old Rudolf set in a fast paced urban environment begs the question Do we only think we exist Rudolf and his wife work day and night hoping for a better life he is a philosophy graduate student and the manager of a car dealership He also keeps up a heart wrenching relationship with the chic Wanda Then there is Nina who studies logic but is secretly a prostitute and Alfred owner of a car leasing company seemingly upright but actually an embezzler Each character conceals something Be it in Hungary or North America the craving for existential clarity remains strong

Greek Tragedy on Screen Pantelis Michelakis, 2013-08-29 Greek Tragedy on Screen considers a wide range of films which engage openly with narrative and performative aspects of Greek tragedy This volume situates these films within the context of on going debates in film criticism and reception theory in relation to theoretical or critical readings of tragedy in contemporary culture Michelakis argues that film adaptations of Greek tragedy need to be placed between the promises of cinema for a radical popular culture and the divergent cultural practices and realities of commercial films art house films silent cinema and films for television home video and DVD In an age where the boundaries between art and other forms of cultural production are constantly intersected and reconfigured the appeal of Greek tragedy for the screen needs to be related to the longing it triggers for origins and authenticity as well as to the many uncertainties such as homelessness violence and loss of identity with which it engages The films discussed include not only critically recognized films by directors such as Michael Cacoyannis Jules Dassin and Pier Paolo Pasolini but also more recent films by Woody Allen Tony Harrison Werner Herzog and Lars von Trier Moreover it also considers earlier and largely neglected films of cinematic traditions which lie outside Hollywood

Prophetic Times Maurizio Viroli, 2023-01-05 Throughout Italy's history prophetic voices poets painters philosophers have bolstered the struggle for social and political emancipation These voices denounced the vices of compatriots and urged them toward redemption They gave meaning to suffering helping to prevent moral surrender they provided support with pathos and anger which set into motion the moral imagination culminating in redemption and freedom While the fascist regime attempted to enlist Mazzini and the prophets of the Risorgimento in support of its ideology the most perceptive anti fascist intellectual and political leaders composed eloquent prophetic pages to sustain the resistance against the totalitarian regime By the end of the 1960s no prophet of social emancipation has been able to move the consciences of the Italians In this Italian story then is our story the world s story inspiration for social and political emancipation everywhere
