Tom Nairn, Paul James

Passion And Paradox Intellectuals Confront The National Question:

Passion and Paradox, 2001 From Kosovo to Qu bec Ireland to East Timor nationalism has been a recurrent topic of intense debate It has been condemned as a source of hatred and war yet embraced for stimulating community feeling and collective freedom Joan Cocks explores the power danger and allure of nationalism by examining its place in the thought of eight politically engaged intellectuals of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the antagonist of capital Karl Marx the critics of imperialism Rosa Luxemburg Hannah Arendt and Frantz Fanon the liberal pluralist Isaiah Berlin the neonationalist Tom Nairn and the post colonial writers V S Naipaul and Edward Said Cocks not only sheds new light on the complexities of nationalism but also reveals the tensions that have inspired and troubled intellectuals who have sought to lead lives between detached criticism and political passion In lively conversational prose Cocks assesses their treatment of questions such as the mythology of national identity the right to national self determination and the morality of nationalist violence While ultimately critical of nationalism she engages sympathetically even with its defenders By illuminating the links that distinguished minds have drawn between thought and action on nationalism in politics this stimulating work provides a rich foundation from which we ourselves might think or act more wisely when confronting a phenomenon that in fundamental and perplexing ways has shaped our world

Marxism and National Identity Robert Stuart, 2006-06-01 Post Marxists argue that nationalism is the black hole into which Marxism has collapsed at today s end of history Robert Stuart analyzes the origins of this implosion revealing a shattering collision between Marxist socialism and national identity in France at the close of the nineteenth century During the time of the Boulanger crisis and the Dreyfus affair nationalist mobs roamed the streets chanting France for the French while socialist militants marshaled proletarians for world revolution This is the first study to focus on those militants as they struggled to reconcile Marxism s two national agendas the cosmopolitan conviction that workingmen have no country on the one hand and the patriotic assumption that the working class alone represents national authenticity on the other Anti Semitism posed a particular problem for such socialists not least because so many workers had succumbed to racist temptation In analyzing the resultant encounter between France s anti Semites and the Marxist Left Stuart addresses the vexed issue of Marxism s involvement with political anti Semitism

Narratives of Statelessness and Political Otherness Barzoo Eliassi, 2021-07-16 This book argues that citizenship is an inadequate solution to the problem of statelessness based on a critical investigation of the lived experiences of Kurdish and Palestinian diasporas in western Europe It examines how statelessness affects identity formations homelessness belonging non belonging otherness voices status non recognition dis respect in visibility and presence in the uneven world of nation states It also demonstrates that the undoing of non sovereign identities subjection to structural subalternization and everyday inferiorization requires rights in excess of the mere acquisition of juridical citizenship which tends to assume national sameness That assumption in turn involves sovereign practices of denial and assimilation of ethnic alterity The book therefore highlights the necessity of de ethnicizing and decolonizing unitary nation states that are based on the politico cultural supremacy of a single core ethnicity as the sovereign legislator of the rules and regimes of national belonging and un belonging It therefore broaches questions of majority and minority mobility nationalism home making equality difference and universalism in the context of the nation state and illustrates how stateless peoples such as Kurds and Palestinians endure and challenge their subordinate position in a hierarchical geo political order and how in so doing remain bound by political otherness

German Literature, History and the Nation Christian Emden, David R. Midgley, 2004 This is the second of three volumes based on papers given at the Fragile Tradition conference in Cambridge 2002 Together they provide a conspectus of current research on the cultural historical and literary imagination of the German speaking world across the whole of the modern period This volume highlights the connections between cultural identity and the sense of nationhood which are to be found in literary writing the history of ideas and the interaction between European cultures from the late Middle Ages to the present day It focuses particularly on the way myths of cultural identity are passed on and transformed historically on the fashioning of various models of modern German identity with reference to the cultures of Greece France England and Renaissance Italy on the reflection of 19th century nationalism in literary writing and ideas about language and on the ways in which cultural values have asserted themselves in relation to moments of catastrophe and abrupt political change in the 1920s the 1940s and the 1990s

Islam Beyond Conflict Wayne Hudson, 2017-03-02 Politically Islam in Indonesia is part of a rich multi cultural mix Religious tolerance is seen as the cornerstone of relations between different faiths and moderation is built into the country s constitutional framework However the advent of democracy coupled with the impact of the South East Asian economic collapse in 1997 and the arrival of a tough new breed of Middle Eastern Islamic preachers sowed the seeds of the current challenge to Indonesia s traditionally moderate form of Islam This volume explores the extent to which moderate Indonesian Islam is able to assimilate leading concepts from Western political theory The essays in the collection explore how concepts from Western political theory are compatible with a liberal interpretation of Islamic universals and how such universals can form the basis for a contemporary approach to the protection of human rights and the articulation of a modern Islamic civil society

Queer Asia J. Daniel Luther, Jennifer Ung Loh, 2019-05-15 Queer studies is now a rapidly expanding field as scholars from a variety of disciplines seek to address the long running marginalisation of queer perspectives and experiences But there has so far been little effort to unify the study of queer communities outside the West and much of the current writing views these communities through a narrowly Western lens Building on the work of the annual Queer Asia conference which the editors helped to establish this collection represents the most comprehensive work to date on queer studies in an Asian context Featuring case studies and original research from across the continent covering the Middle East South and East Asia and Asian diasporas the collection offers a genuinely pan Asian perspective which places queer Asian identities and movements in dialogue with each other rather than within a Western framework By considering how queerness is imagined within plural Asian experiences and contexts the contributors show a that re envisioning of queer through Asian perspectives has the potential to challenge existing discourses and debates in the wider field of contemporary gender sexuality and queer studies Global Matrix Tom Nairn,Paul James,2005-03-20 Globalization has brought with it many difficult and contradictory phenomena violence deep national insecurities religious divisions and individual insecurities This book takes a critical look at three key areas globalism nationalism and state terror to confront common mythologies and identify the root causes of the problems we face Too many commentators still argue that globalization is predominantly a neo liberal economic phenomenon that nation states are on the way out and that terror is something that primarily comes from below Global Matrix exposes the limitations of this argument Written by two leading scholars this is a lucid study of what place the nation state has in a globalizing world that will appeal to students across the political and social sciences Arendt, Fanon and Political Violence in Islam Patrycja Sasnal,2019-07-08 This book looks at contemporary political violence in the form of jihadism through the lens of a philosophical polemic between Hannah Arendt and Frantz Fanon intellectual representatives of the global north and global south It explores the relationship of Arendt s thought mostly as expressed in On Violence 1969 to Fanon s The Wretched of the Earth 1961 and the transposition of that relationship to the contemporary phenomenon of violent Islamic extremism The book reveals a greater commonality between Fanon and Arendt as well as the universal function of jihadism that satisfies the conditions for political violence as categorized by Fanon in the global south and Arendt in the global north Read in tandem Arendt and Fanon help uncover the fundamental problems of our European American Middle Eastern and African political systems as well as north south relations By studying political theory the book finds global political commonalities in a postcolonial reality Written in an accessible style this book will be of great interest to undergraduates and graduates in philosophy political sciences and international relations IR sociology and Middle Eastern studies as well as scholars and professionals interested in radicalization violent extremism and the foreign policies of European Middle Eastern and African countries Women Philosophers in the Long Nineteenth Century Dalia Nassar,Kristin Gjesdal,2021-07-19 This volume makes available to English language readers in many cases for the first time the works of nine women philosophers from the German tradition It showcases their contemporary relevance and their crucial contributions to nineteenth century philosophical movements An Editors Introduction offers a comprehensive overview of the contributions of women philosophers in the Nineteenth Century Each chapter is furnished with an introduction to the distinctive life and work of the philosopher in questions The translated texts are accessible and engaging The translations are furnished with explanatory footnotes This is a good fit for courses in 19th Century Philosophy which can sometimes be called 19th Century German or

European Philosophy as it's very German heavy That is a course that is a vast majority of philosophy departments and required for majors The purpose of the book is to give people texts to use and assign to diversify syllabi in this area since usually it's just about Nietzsche Schopenhauer and the like and no women For surveys of the History of Philosophy in general this could also be a core text for people looking to diversify in terms of gender their offerings since 19th Century German philosophy is usually such a major part of those courses given the importance of the work that was done then again this book allows people to diversify their syllabus
