Regional Innovation Strategies The Challenge For Less Favoured Regions:

Regional Innovation Strategies Kevin Morgan, Claire Nauwelaers, 2004-06-02 Regional Innovation Strategies offers the first comprehensive analysis of the new wave of innovation oriented regional policies It draws conclusions from the European Regional Technology Plans and Regional Innovation Strategies both in old industrialised areas and in regions where development is slow and compares this with US and Canadian experiences Anticipating the enlargement of the EU Regional Innovation Strategies also assesses the growing interest in the subject within policy academic and practitioner circles in Central and Eastern European countries This book aims to provide information on the new regional innovation policies and gives the first assessment of this promising pool of regional experiences

Regional Innovation Strategies Kevin Morgan, 1998-03 This text offers a comprehensive analysis of the late 1900s wave of innovation oriented regional policies The text draws conclusions from the Regional Technology and Regional Innovation Strategies in Europe and compares them with US and Canadian experiences

Regional Innovation Strategies Kevin Morgan, Claire Nauwelaers, Regional Studies Association (Seaford, England), 1999 Regional Innovation Strategies offers the first comprehensive analysis of the new wave of innovation oriented regional policies It draws conclusions from the European Regional Technology Plans and Regional Innovation Strategies both in old industrialised areas and in regions where development is slow and compares this with US and Canadian experiences Anticipating the enlargement of the EU Regional Innovation Strategies also assesses the growing interest in the subject within policy academic and practitioner circles in Central and Eastern European countries This book aims to provide information on the new regional innovation policies and gives the first assessment of this promising pool of regional experiences

Regional Innovation Policy for Small+Medium Enterprises Bjørn T. Asheim, Arne Isaksen, Claire Nauwelaers, Franz Tödtling, 2003-08-26 A must read for academics and regional planners alike who wish to understand the workings of a regional innovation system The authors have given a fresh comprehensive and sound analysis which offers an excellent framework for regional innovation policy design Mikel Landabaso European Commission Brussels Belgium This book provides an extensive evaluation of the numerous policy instruments used by regional governments in Europe to promote innovation activity in Small and Medium sized Enterprises SMEs The instruments are compared and benchmarked in order to identify good practice in an effort to bridge the gap between the theory of regional innovation and real world policy implementation

New Regionalism in Australia Mardelene Grobbelaar, 2018-01-18 New Regionalism promoted as a new paradigm of development by the OECD suggests that globalization is bringing together new technologies management employees and communities to form new patterns of local governance However despite the growing influence of New Regionalism in regional development policy in the West and increasingly in Australia there has been little debate about the relevance and application of these ideas in Australia Bringing together contributions from academics practitioners and policy makers this book redresses this imbalance by examining the theoretical and empirical foundations of this powerful and growing school of thought locating the debate firmly in the Australian context With an opening chapter by Kevin Morgan Cardiff University who has been at the heart of the New Regionalism debate the book provides important insights into the theory and practice of New Regionalism in this vibrant region Innovation Networks Knut Koschatzky, Marianne Kulicke, Andrea Zenker, 2012-12-06 Innovation networks are a major source for acquiring new information and knowledge and thus for supporting innovation processes Despite the many theoretical and empirical contributions to the explanation of networks many questions still remain open For example How can networks if they do not emerge by their own be initiated How can fragmentation in innovation systems be overcome And how can networking experience from market economies be transferred to the emerging economies of Central and Eastern Europe By presenting a selection of papers which address innovation networking from theoretical and political viewpoints the book aims at giving answers to these questions

Innovation and Social Learning M. Gertler, D. Wolfe, 2002-05-22 How well suited are the institutions of a region nation or international regime to the task of coping with the dramatic changes currently underway in the global economy This volume examines this issue The Creative Class Goes Global Charlotta Mellander, Richard Florida, Bjørn T. Asheim, Meric Gertler, 2013-11-07 The whole landscape of research in urban studies was revolutionized by the publication of Richard Florida's The Rise of the Creative Class in 2002 and his subsequent book entitled The Flight of the Creative Class has helped to maintain a decade long explosion of interest in the field While these two books examine the creative class in the context of the United States research has emerged which investigates the creative class worldwide This book brings together detailed studies of the creative class in cities across the globe examining the impact of the creative class on growth and development The countries covered include the United Kingdom the Netherlands Germany Australia China Japan and Canada in addition to the United States Taken together the contributions deepen our understanding of the creative class and the various factors that affect regional development highlighting the similarities and differences between the creative class and economic development across countries This book will be of great interest to scholars of economic geography regional economics urban sociology and cultural policy as well as policy makers involved in urban development The Empirical and Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation Philip McCann, Frank van Oort, John Goddard, 2016-11-25 Smart specialisation is the new policy approach to the development of regional innovation systems across Europe and it involves fostering innovative and entrepreneurial initiatives which are well tailored to the local context The different technologies skills profiles business activities institutions and sectors which reflect a region's economic strengths and potential are to be fostered and encouraged to diversify in ways which also exploit the region's linkages with broader global value chains Yet the ideas contained in the smart specialisation agenda have until now been primarily conceptual in nature The Empirical and Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation draws together some of the leading regional economists and scientists in Europe to analyse how smart specialisation is working in practice This book investigates different dimensions of the agenda

as it is developing across parts of Europe from both quantitative and qualitative perspectives The quantitative analysis examines the nature of the diversification processes undertaken by regions and the interplay between the chosen local regional development priorities and the wider global value chain impacts of these choices Meanwhile the qualitative analysis examines the institutional opportunities and challenges facing policy makers and the key elements most likely to provide the underpinnings of a workable set of policy settings The book is aimed both at academic researchers interested in the interface between economic geography and regional innovation systems as well as at policy makers making public policy decisions related to regional development at the local city regional or national levels

Knowledge Economy and the City Ali Madanipour, 2013-03-01 This book explores the relationship between space and economy the spatial expressions of the knowledge economy The capitalist industrial economy produced its own space which differed radically from its predecessor agrarian and mercantile economies If a new knowledge based economy is emerging it is similarly expected to produce its own space to suit the new circumstances of production and consumption If these spatial expressions do exist even if in incomplete and partial forms they are likely to be the model for the future of cities
