But the Kawakubos were no ordinary family their mother insisted on a divorce leaving her husband to fulfill her dream of becoming a high school teacher. In 1960 Kawakubo attended her father's university and undertook a degree in the history of aesthetics a course that considered both Eastern and Western culture and art. When she graduated in 1964 she left home and without telling her parents moved into a shared apartment in the seamy Harajuku neighborhood of Tokyo. Kawakubo has always asserted she owns a duality of personality and her early adult years did much to cultivate this notion while the bohemian lifestyle of Harajuku spoke to her inherent desire to break the rules the other half gifted through education and the affluent social circles she formed during university held a deep concern for both tradition and history.
