Devotions for the Wounded Heart Dennis Cory, 2011 When Jesus Christ began His earthly ministry He first went out and got baptized and was then led of the Holy Spirit into the wilderness and there was tempted by the Devil Then in the power of the Spirit He began teaching in the synagogues When He came to His hometown of Nazareth and went to church on the Sabbath and stood up to read the elders delivered the book of Isaiah to Him and He opened the book to the place where He read these words The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind to set at liberty them that are bruised To preach the acceptable year of the Lord Luke 4:18-19 KJV Jesus chose this passage of Scripture because it was known to be a prophecy of the coming Messiah and it is a concise outline of the purpose and ministry calling of our Lord The Holy Spirit living in the hearts of every born again Christian is working to fulfill this Scripture for us all Jesus Christ by the Spirit is also drawing all people to Him for their salvation through the measure of faith which our loving Father

God has given to every person It is will of God that no human being perish but that everyone would come to repentance It is therefore His will that we all hear and respond to the gospel that our broken hearts be healed that the chains of our captive bondage be broken that our physical and spiritual eyes be opened and that every bruise and wound we carry be healed That is the theme calling and purpose by which this daily devotional has been inspired to be written The Word of God is clear in that our heavenly Father wants all people to accept His salvation but just as true He wants all to be healed and delivered It is my prayer that this devotional will be used of the Lord to help accomplish this work in your lives Miraculous Mountain Mover Chuck Klingman, 2017-12-15 By definition a disciple follows As contemporary Christians today most of us are sincere about proclaiming that we are disciples of Jesus Christ Yet in truth and by definition few of us really are Many of us are genuine about conforming to the Lords character at least in part and thats a worthy pursuit However for various reasons as explained in this book very few of us today are personally carrying on with the Lords own miraculous works and ways as directed In truth our own prayers personal ministries and methods seldom resemble the timeless prayers ministry and methods of Jesus nor do our results resemble His miraculous results This powerful book is passionately committed to helping and encouraging every believer to follow Jesus in the miraculous ways of a mountain mover while explaining just how to do it So much more than another great book on prayer and discipleship the Miraculous Mountain Mover is an invitation into the powerful life of active faith that is intended for every believer and follower of Jesus As Christians we are the Body of Christ His hands and feet His mouthpiece and were called to do His work on the earth in our day Pastor Chuck has a first hand experience of this and it is his contagious passion to help others to do the same Be forewarned this book is not for the faint of heart As you read this book you will be very encouraged However you will also be challenged to step out of the shadows of fear and doubt and into the adventurous life of faith that awaits Enjoy Brett Masters Senior Pastor Dream Center Lake Elsinore

Reflections for Daily Prayer Advent 2019 to Eve of Advent 2020 Rosalind Brown, Vanessa Conant, Gillian Cooper, 2017-12-01 Bible reading notes based on the Common Worship Lectionary Each day Monday to Saturday some of the very best writers from across the Anglican tradition offer insightful informed and inspiring reflections on one of the day s readings for Morning Prayer This volume covers the church year 2019 2020 The Gospel of Matthew, vol. 1 Walter T. Wilson, 2022-11-29 What was the original purpose of the Gospel of Matthew For whom was it written In this magisterial two volume commentary Walter Wilson interprets Matthew as a catechetical work that expresses the ideological and institutional concerns of a faction of disaffected Jewish followers of Jesus in the late first century CE Wilson s compelling thesis frames Matthew s Gospel as not only a continuation of the biblical story but also as a didactic narrative intended to shape the commitments and identity of a particular group that saw itself as a beleaguered dissident minority Thus the text clarifies Jesus s essential Jewish character as the Son of David while also portraying him in opposition to prominent religious leaders of his day most notably the Pharisees and open to cordial association with non Jews Through meticulous engagement with the Greek text of the Gospel as well as relevant primary sources and secondary literature Wilson offers a wealth of insight into the first book of the New Testament After an introduction exploring the background of the text its genre and literary features and its theological orientation Wilson explicates each passage of the Gospel with thorough commentary on the intended message to first century readers about topics like morality liturgy mission group discipline and eschatology Scholars students pastors and all readers interested in what makes the Gospel of Matthew distinctive among the Synoptics will appreciate and benefit from Wilson s deep contextualization of the text informed by his years of studying the New Testament and Christian origins

Shepherds Daniel C. Fredericks,2017-04-27 How does God manage his entire creation Has he had a plan a theme a metanarrative or something else which he follows that gives a unity to all of his efforts Shepherds describes the relationship between the Creator and his creation a relationship that is structurally integrated by the very core of who God is There is a design within creation that radiates from his personal unique being What God created and how he manages it is a marvelous extension of who he is and how he acts This relationship between God and his creation is not patterned only on his essence or being but on his powerful and loving will and acts Rather than a literary grid to which theme and metanarrative attempt to subject God s relationship with humanity Shepherds recognizes that all of creation bears the eternal design emanating from God s very nature Scripture is not a story about Israel or the church it is not simply a story of redemption it is a window into the eternal design by which God created reality and will eternally sustain that creation Jesus Christ and the Last Crusade James Shane,2003-04

To Be Near the Fire Roger S. Busse, 2014-07-18 Virtually all scholars agree that Jesus did one very risky thing he exorcised demons Exorcism was an illicit activity in the Roman world so why would Jesus risk condemnation arrest and even death for the sake of the demon possessed Some point to his compassion Roger Busse a thirty nine year veteran of risk analysis and a graduate of Harvard Divinity School has another answer from the world in which he lives risk assessment People engage in risky ventures only when not doing so would pose even greater risks What was the greater risk for Jesus He believed that his land and home then suffering under foreign occupation was filled with demons He believed that if he did not drive them off all might be lost and the forces of darkness might win out leaving only the kingdom of Satan Given this context Busse reassesses the gospel traditions Using risk analysis Busse provides a new approach that recovers the specific charismatic practices sayings and parables that the exorcist Jesus employed in his deliberate and dangerous strategy to drive Satan from the land and reestablish the kingdom of God To Be Near the Fire offers a new portrait of Jesus and the origins of Christianity
