The Nature of Purchasing Florian Schupp, Heiko Wöhner, 2020-05-20 This book was created in the spirit of learning from nature in the field of professional purchasing It describes real world purchasing problems faced by companies as well as individuals and presents natural hands on solutions that apply scientific approaches The book answers what the core of purchasing could be the inner structure of it or in other words the natural way Nature masters effectiveness based on immanent laws and ensures efficiency by best results for minimal invest Especially in complex and ambiguous situations purchasers benefit from this book by understanding the broader context with the help of recent scientific research Focusing on the problems that purchasers face in managerial practice rather than oversimplified generalizations the book features step by step explanations allowing readers to find tailored solutions to address challenges in key purchasing areas The book was written in collaboration and with the help of experts in purchasing and logistics biology law and economics human resource development media and sports and merges perspectives from theory and practice to provide natural strategies for purchasers

Close Relationships Clyde Hendrick, 2000 The authors in the volume extend the reach of their comprehensive reviews into theoretically driven and innovating explorations The scope of coverage across and within chapters is striking The developmentalist the methodologist the feminist the contextualist and the cross culturalist alike will find satisfaction in reading the chapters Catherine A Surra The University of Texas at Austin The science of close relationships is relatively new and complex Close Relationships A Sourcebook represents the growing maturity of this multidisciplinary enterprise The volume offers 26 chapters organized into four thematic areas relationship methods forms processes and threats as well as a foreword and an epilogue The volume provides a panoramic view of close relationship research as it enters the 21st century offering highlights from current literature original research practical applications and projections for future research Relationship Methods includes both qualitative and quantitative chapters Relationship Forms includes many of the stages types and roles that characterize intimate relationships In a developmental fashion chapters address social networks children s friendships adolescent relationships adult friendships and friendships in later life Chapters on multicultural and multiracial relationships and gay lesbian and bisexual relationships illustrate the variety of relationship forms that the science of close relationships must consider The alignments and realignments of traditional family structure are considered in terms of contemporary marriage divorce and single parenting and remarried families Relationship Processes includes chapters on emotion attachment romantic love sexuality intimacy communication conflict social support and relational maintenance The important topic of gender concludes the section The shadow side of human nature is explored in the Relationship Threats section with chapters on infidelity and jealousy physical and sexual aggression depression and loss and bereavement A foreword by Ellen Berscheid sets the stage for this broad ranging collection of chapters Steve Duck and Linda Acitelli conclude with an epilogue that provides a new beginning for the science of close relationships

Between professions and countries. Highly skilled Latin American migrants and the negotiation of cultural capital Ilana Nussbaum Bitran, 2020-11-10 The migration of highly skilled individuals brings together two important and well developed institutional systems on the one hand the organization of professions and on the other hand the state and its migration and integration regime Therefore professional migrants move between two levels of regulation The first one applies to their specific professional group and regulates the acquisition of knowledge as well as the participation in the labor market The second one controls the access to and settlement in a given country Taking the examples of medicine and the information technologies IT in Germany and Chile the present research asks how different institutional settings shape the cultural capital negotiation strategies of highly skilled Latin American migrants Using Bourdieu's relational theory and especially his concepts of field and capital this book seeks to understand professions as fields and to follow the trajectories of highly skilled Latin American migrants within two transnational professional fields Using a reconstructive praxeological approach this book presents three typologies showing how the interaction between transnational professional fields and national regulations creates different possibilities for highly skilled migrants to negotiate their capital and the strategies they develop to reach a good position in their host country's labor market

Communication in Personal Relationships Across Cultures William B. Gudykunst, Stella Ting-Toomey, Tsukasa Nishida, 1996-08-07 Filling the void in interpersonal and intercultural communication Communication in Personal Relationships Across Cultures examines the communication practices of non Western cultures The international cast of contributors assembled here leaves behind the biases typical of most research and theorizing done in this area of communication and enables the reader to develop a thorough understanding of how people communicate in non Western societies Chapters focus on communication practices in China Japan Korea Mexico Brazil Iran Africa and totalitarian societies Through both emic and etic approaches this groundbreaking volume explores how members of a culture understand their own communication and compares the similarities and differences of specific aspects of communication across cultures Covering all major theories in this expanding field and suggesting areas for future research this engaging collection will interest both students and professionals in communication psychology and sociology
