Religion and the Media Chris Arthur,1993 Television and Behavior ,1982 Television and Behavior National Institute of Mental Health (U.S.),1982 Abstract A comprehensive report summarizes the past 10 years of research activities and findings concerning the effects of television viewing on child behavior and development Approximately 90% of all research publications on this topic appeared during this period representing over 2500 titles The report is presented in 2 volumes a summary report and technical reviews The technical reviews comprise overall comprehensive and critical syntheses of the scientific literature on specific topic areas developed by 24 researchers in this area The topic areas address such issues as cognitive and emotional aspects of television viewing television s influences on physical and mental health television as it relates to socialization and viewer s conceptions of social reality and television as an American institution The overall orientation of the report is toward research and public health issues Socio-Historical Examination of Religion and Ministry, Volume 1, Issue 1 Darren M. Slade,2019-06-13 Socio Historical Examination of Religion and Ministry SHERM journal is a biannual not for profit free peer reviewed academic journal that publishes the latest social scientific historiographic and ecclesiastic research on religious institutions and their ministerial practices SHERM is dedicated to the critical and scholarly inquiry of historical and contemporary religious phenomena both from within particular religious traditions and across cultural boundaries so as to inform the broader socio historical analysis of religion and its related fields of study The purpose of SHERM is to provide a scholarly medium for the social scientific study of religion where specialists can publish advanced studies on religious trends theologies rituals philosophies socio political influences or experimental and applied ministry research in the hopes of generating enthusiasm for the vocational and academic study of religion while fostering collegiality among religious specialists Its mission is to provide academics professionals and nonspecialists with critical reflections and evidence based insights into the socio historical study of religion and where appropriate its implications for ministry and expressions of religiosity Television and Behavior: Technical reviews ,1982 Abstract A comprehensive report summarizes the past 10 years of research activities and findings concerning the effects of television viewing on child behavior and development Approximately 90% of all research publications on this topic appeared during this period representing over 2500 titles The report is presented in 2 volumes a summary report and technical reviews The technical reviews comprise overall comprehensive and critical syntheses of the scientific literature on specific topic areas developed by 24 researchers in this area The topic areas address such issues as cognitive and emotional aspects of television viewing television s influences on physical and mental health television as it relates to socialization and viewer s conceptions of social reality and television as an American institution The overall orientation of the report is toward research and public health issues American Dreams, Suburban Nightmares: Suburbia as a Narrative Space between Utopia and Dystopia in Contemporary American Cinema Melanie Smicek,2014-10 The suburban landscape is inseparable from

American culture Suburbia does not only relate to the geographical concept but also describes a cultural space incorporating people's hopes for a safe and prosperous life Suburbia marks a dynamic ideological space constantly influenced and recreated by both the events of everyday life and artistic discourse Fictional texts do not merely represent suburbia but also have a decisive role in the shaping of suburban spaces The widely held idealized image of suburbia evolved in the 1950s Today reality deviates from the concept of suburbs projected back then due to e.g. high divorce rates and an increase of crime Nevertheless the nostalgic view of the suburbs as the Promised Land has survived Postwar critics object to this perception considering the suburbs rather as depressing landscapes of mass consumption conformity and alienation This book exemplifies the dualistic representation of suburbs in contemporary American cinema by analyzing Pleasantville The Truman Show and American Beauty It examines how utopian concepts of suburbia are created culturally and psychologically in the films and how the underlying anxieties of the suburban experience visualized by the dystopian narratives challenge this ideal

Heroes, villains and the muslim exception Mehal Krayem,2017-12-18 Heroes Villains and the Muslim Exception explores recent crime drama film and television depictions of Arab and Muslim men in Australia It examines the representation of three Australian productions East West 101 The Combination and Cedar Boys Since 2007 Australia has seen a notable increase in the inclusion of Arab and Muslim male characters in various serials and films but what do these inclusions mean for the place of Arab and Muslim men in Australia today This book seeks to understand how these representations are constructed and whether they are as progressive and edgy as producers and media responses would suggest This book explores the extent to which cultural productions such as East West 101 The Combination and Cedar Boys open up a space for new understandings of the place of Arab and Muslim Australians in contemporary Australia Importantly it considers the role of the Special Broadcasting Service in the plight of anti racism Islamic Studies Series Volume 23

Prime Time Soap Operas on Indian Television Shoma Munshi,2020-02-18 This book examines the phenomenon of prime time soap operas on Indian television An anthropological insight into social issues and practices of contemporary India through the television this volume analyzes the production of soaps within India's cultural fabric. It deconstructs themes and issues surrounding the everyday and the middle class through the fiction of the popular. In its second edition this still remains the only book to examine prime time soap operas on Indian television. Without in any way changing the central arguments of the first edition it adds an essential introductory chapter tracking the tectonic shifts in the Indian mediascape over the past decade including how the explosion of regional language channels and an era of multiple screens have changed soap viewing forever. Meticulously researched and persuasively argued the book traces how prime time soaps in India still grab the maximum eyeballs and remain the biggest earners for TV channels. The book will be of interest to students of anthropology and sociology, media and cultural studies, visual culture studies, gender and family studies and also Asian studies in general. It is also an important resource for media producers both in content production and television channels as well as for the general reader.

The Bloomsbury Companion to New Religious Movements George D. Chryssides, Benjamin E. Zeller, 2014-01-02. The Bloomsbury Companion to New Religious Movements covers key themes such as charismatic leadership, conversion and brainwashing, prophecy and millennialism, violence and suicide, gender and sexuality, legal issues and the portrayal of New Religious Movements by the media and anti-cult organisations. Several categories of new religions receive special attention including African new religions, Japanese new religions, Mormons and UFO religions. This guide to New Religious Movements and their critical study brings together 29 world-class international scholars and serves as a resource to students and researchers. The volume highlights the current state of academic study in the field and explores areas in which future research might develop. Clearly and accessibly organised to help users quickly locate key information and analysis, the book includes an A to Z of key terms, extensive guides to further resources, a comprehensive bibliography and a timeline of major developments in the field such as the emergence of new groups, publications, legal decisions and historical events.

Mídia, religião e sociedade Luís Mauro Sá Martino, 2017-02-08. Na sociedade contemporânea as relações entre mídia e religião ganham novas e inesperadas dimensões. Facilitadas pelos ambientes digitais, essas ligações alteram a lógica da mídia e as práticas da religião, atingindo áreas como a política, a cultura, a economia e outros aspectos da vida cotidiana. De jornais e revistas a aplicativos para smartphones, passando por filmes e programas de televisão, denominações religiosas estão em vários espaços no ambiente das mídias. A ligação com as mídias aumentou a visibilidade pública das religiões, colocando indivíduos, comunidades e sociedades diante da necessidade de conviver com a diferença, com visões de mundo opostas, com o desafio de viver juntos. Dirigido a pesquisadores e estudantes das áreas de Comunicação e Ciências Sociais, Mídia, religião e sociedade oferece um panorama dessas relações.
