When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22. When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, especially in the abuse of religion. In many ways, this book is a literature review of 1,800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners. The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor, TDCJ Director, and wardens throughout the prison. Therein, TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors. Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths? In fact, TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given, and worse, UTMB generates no reports itself. The underbelly of TDCJ's executive culture of cover-up is exposed. TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence. TDCJ Dir. Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain, the most scandal-ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years. Therein, Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism. Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another. We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400,000,000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence, in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision. Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100,000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment, which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of dollars.

On the Significance of Religion in Conflict and Conflict Resolution Christine Schliesser, S. Ayse Kadayifci-Orellana, Pauline Kollontai, 2020-07-01. In this ground-breaking volume, the authors analyze the role of religion in conflict and conflict resolution. They do so from the perspectives of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam while bringing different disciplines into play, including peace and conflict studies, religious studies, theology, and ethics. With much of current academic, political, and public attention focusing on the conflictive dimensions of religion, this book also explores the constructive resources of religion for conflict resolution and reconciliation. Analyzing the specific contributions of religious actors in this field, their potentials, and possible problems connected with them, this book sheds light on the concrete contours of the oftentimes vague religious factor in processes of social change. Case studies in current and former settings of violent conflict, such as Israel post-genocide, Rwanda, and Pakistan, provide real-life contexts for discussion. Combining cutting-edge research with case studies and concrete implications for academics, policy makers, and practitioners this concise and easily accessible volume helps to build bridges between these oftentimes separated spheres of engagement The Open Access version of this book available at <http://doi.org/10.4324/9781003002888> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license MultiCultural Review, 1997
