Hindu Mission, Christian Mission Reid B. Locklin, 2024-05-01 For some four hundred years Hindus and Christians have been engaged in a public controversy about conversion and missionary proselytization especially in India and the Hindu diaspora Hindu Mission Christian Mission reframes this controversy by shifting attention from conversion to a wider interreligious study of mission as a category of thought and practice Comparative theologian Reid B

Locklin traces the emergence of the nondualist Hindu teaching of Advaita Vedānta as a missionary tradition from the eighth century to the present day and draws this tradition into dialogue with contemporary proposals in Christian missiology As a descriptive study of the Chinmaya Mission the Ramakrishna Mission and other leading Advaita mission movements Hindu Mission Christian Mission contributes to a growing body of scholarship on transnational Hinduism As a speculative work of Christian comparative theology it develops key themes from this engagement for a new interreligious theology of mission and conversion for the twenty first century and beyond Leave the Temple Felix Wilfred,2010-01-01 How can India a land of intense poverty as well as unparalleled spirituality be liberated Where do the sources for its liberation lie Leave the Temple brings together writings that weigh the practical and theoretical problems of hermeneutic pre understandings of the socio political situation in South Asia Is the challenge of social transformation and human liberation one in which people must leave the temple to embrace the freeing insights of secularization Or does leaving the temple to find God in the world of suffering humanity provide a richness and empowerment that secular models of the human future cannot replace Contributors include Walter Fernandes on a socio historical perspective for liberation theology in India and on bhakti Yvon Ambroise on oppression and liberation in Indian society Ignatius Puthiadam on trends in Hindu thought T K John on liberation theology and Gandhian praxis George M Soares Prabhu on the liberative pedagogy of Jesus Xavier Irudayaraj on interiority and liberation Samuel Rayan on caste Sebastian Kappen on social crisis and liberation Michael Amaladoss on liberation as an interreligious project and Felix Wilfred on the Catholic Church's participation in the liberation of India

Legacy Of A Divided Nation Mushirul Hasan,2019-03-13 This book is regarded as a personal manifesto a statement through the history of partition and its aftermath of the values which India's Muslims should cherish and of the national priorities they should promote It provides the reference point for understanding India's Partition and its legacy The Christian Ashram Movement in India Zdeněk Štipl,2020-03-20 This book is one of the first to present a definitive history of the Christian Ashram Movement It offers insights into the development of the Movement Europe's Orientalist view of Eastern mysticism and how the concept of the ashram spread beyond the borders of India Drawing extensively from ashram literature and the author's field research the book critically analyzes the notions of inculturation in the encounter between Christianity and Hindu spirituality and ritualism It looks at how the Movement grew out of the colonial encounter and how it evolved through the years which was contingent on developments within Christian churches outside India The volume also discusses the reinterpretation of the idea of the ashram by Christian theologians the introduction of elite Brahmanical concepts within the Movement and the unique theological perspectives which were nurtured in these ashrams The book offers an alternative perspective to the generally perceived history of Christianity in India It will be of interest to scholars and researchers of religious studies Christianity sociology social anthropology and religious history Education and the Disprivileged Sabyasachi Bhattacharya,2002 This book addresses the familiar issue of unequal access to education in a new perspective In this regard whether one looks at gender or caste or tribes or class differences the gap between the privileged and the disprivileged is a matter of everyday experience In what manner and form are these asymmetries reflected in the domain of education is the question at the core of this collection of essays This volume is likely to be useful to those interested in understanding the interface between education and society in India as well as in other developing countries

Imagining the East Erik Reenberg Sand, Tim Rudbø, 2020 The essays in Imagining the East explore how Theosophists during the formative period imagined the religions and cultures of the East The authors examine the relationship of such representations to orientalism the history of ideas politics and culture at large and discuss how these esoteric or theosophical representations mirrored conditions and values current in nineteenth century mainstream intellectual culture The essays also look at how the early Theosophical Society's representations of the East differed from mainstream orientalism and how the Theosophical Society's mission in India was distinct from that of British colonialism and Christian missionaries

They Ask If We Eat Frogs Ellen Bal, 2007 An investigation into the category of tribes in South Asia It focuses on one so called tribal community the Garos of Bangladesh It deals with the evolution of Garo identity ethnicity and with the progressive making of cultural characteristics that support a sense of Garo ness in the context of the complex historical developments
