Religious Language And The Problem Of Religious Knowledge:

Religious Language and the Problem of Religious Knowledge Ronald E. Santoni, 1968 Religious Language and the Problem of Religious Knowledge, Edited with an Introduction by Ronald E. Santoni Ronald Ernest SANTONI, 1968

Analytic Philosophy of Religion James Franklin Harris, 2013-03-14 When Gene Long editor of Kluwer's Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Series first invited me to write the volume on Analytic Philosophy of Religion I accepted with great enthusiasm My only explanation for that enthusiasm now is that I was younger and more naive at the time Soon after starting work on the volume my enthusiasm was dampened by the daunting magnitude of the task I began as a sprinter and quickly settled into the pace of a long distance runner Although I considered myself well read in the subject I soon discovered that I had a great deal of research to do to be confident that I had considered all of the major contributions to the various discussions issues and of religion As I read more and more problems found within analytic philosophy books and articles I realized that I had rushed into a territory already well trodden by the angels I am greatly impressed by the sophistication and subtlety of philosophical argument that characterize the different debates in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion This volume covers a vast amount of material I have endeavored to provide the fairest possible reading of different authors and in cases where I include my own critical evaluations and develop my own positions I have endeavored to provide the strongest possible interpretations of the positions I criticize Religious Language Peter

Donovan, 1976 The Problem of Religious Knowledge William T. Blackstone, 1963 This book is designed for those who have this concern and puzzlement though of course it offers no guarantee of resolving such puzzlement It is not designed to be a highly specialized and technical treatise in philosophy of religion but one which can be read and appreciated by students and educated laymen It has two specific purposes that of providing a clear picture of development in contemporary philosophy and the impact of these developments in philosophy of religion and that of systematically exploring the question Is there religious knowledge Contemporary philosophy is used as a point of reference for devising a framework within which this question can be answered Space limitations have forced an all too brief treatment of some positions Such brevity tends to distort but I have made efforts to avoid such distortion Author's Preface Religious language and the problem of religious knowledge, edited with an introduction Ronald E. Santoni,

Religion Patrick Sherry, 1977-06-17 Challenging the New Atheism Aaron Shepherd, 2020-08-31 This book presents a pragmatic response to arguments against religion made by the New Atheism movement The author argues that analytic and empirical philosophies of religion the mainstream approaches in contemporary philosophy of religion are methodologically unequipped to address the Threefold Challenge made by popular New Atheist thinkers such as Richard Dawkins Sam Harris Christopher Hitchens and Daniel Dennett The book has three primary motivations First it provides an interpretation of the New Atheist movement that treats their claims as philosophical arguments and not just rhetorical exercises or demagoguery Second it assesses and responds to these claims by elaborating four distinct contemporary philosophical perspectives analytic philosophy empirical philosophy continental philosophy and pragmatism as well as contextualizing these perspectives in the history of the philosophy of religion Finally the book offers a metaphilosophical critique returning again and again to the question of method In the end the author settles upon a modified version of pragmatism that he concludes is best suited for articulating the terms and stakes of the God Debate Challenging the New Atheism will be of interest to scholars and students of American philosophy and philosophy of religion
