Religious Human Rights in Global Perspective John Witte,Johan D. van der Vyver,2023-07-24 In this Dickensian century of human rights the world has cultivated the best of religious rights protections but witnessed the worst of religious rights abuses In this volume Jimmy Carter John T Noonan Jr and a score of leading jurists assess critically and comparatively the religious rights laws and practices of the international community and of selected states in the Atlantic continents This volume and its companion Religious Human Rights in Global Perspective Religious Perspectives are products of an ongoing project on religion human rights and democracy undertaken by the Law and Religion Program at Emory University

Eastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet,1998 Eastern Europe addresses the emergence of uncertain pluralism in the region following the disintegration of the communist regimes in 1989 Taking a broad historical approach the volume considers issues and challenges that have marked Eastern Europe from 1939 through World War II and the era of socialism up to the present Eight comprehensive country studies are augmented by detailed assessments of economic developments security issues religious currents cultural policies and gender relations in the region Politics, Power and the Struggle for Democracy in South-East Europe Karen Dawisha,Bruce Parrott,1997-06-13 Edited by two of the world s leading analysts of post communist politics this book brings together distinguished specialists on Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia Macedonia Slovenia Serbia Montenegro Albania Bulgaria and Romania The authors analyse the challenge of building democracy in the countries of the former Yugoslavia riven by conflict and in neighboring states They focus on oppositional activity political cultures that often favour strong presidentialism the role of nationalism and basic socioeconomic trends Karen Dawisha and Bruce Parrott provide theoretical and comparative chapters on post communist political development across the region This book will provide students and scholars with detailed analysis by leading authorities plus the latest research data on recent political and economic developments in each country The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs Orthodox Christianity and the Politics of Transition Tornike Metreveli,2020-11-29 This book discusses in detail how Orthodox Christianity was involved in and influenced political transition in Ukraine Serbia and Georgia after the collapse of communism Based on original research including extensive interviews with clergy and parishioners as well as historical legal and policy analysis the book argues that the nature of the involvement of churches in post communist politics depended on whether the interests of the church for example in education the legal system or economic activity were accommodated or threatened if accommodated churches confined themselves to the sacred domain if threatened they engaged in daily politics If churches competed with each other for organizational interests they evoked the support of nationalism while remaining within the religious domain Nihil

Spirit of the Totem Irena Maryniak,1995 The book presents an original interdisciplinary analysis of religious and mythological perspectives in fiction published in the Soviet Union between the mid 1960s and the mid 1980s In doing so it points to ways in which anthropological theory can be used as a framework for literary criticism It also shows how in the two decades before perestroika religion and mythology served as alternative models for the intellectual and political reorientation of Soviet society Selected works are explored with reference to a formative debate in anthropological studies on the nature and development of religion based on Edward B Tylor s theory of animism and Emile Durkheim s theory of totemism It is shown how the animist totemist dichotomy highlighted by the controversy is reflected in Russian religious thought before 1917 and particularly in the literature of the Soviet era Within the framework of this debate a selection of novels is discussed in the light of a range of mythological and religious systems Attention is drawn to the connection between Valentin Rasputin s religious vision and traditional Siberian beliefs particularly those of the Buryat The Georgian novel Data Tutashkia by Chabua Amiredzhibi is analysed with reference to Zoroastrian thought Daniil Granin s Kartina The Picture serves as an example of a work where in accordance with Tylor s theory notions of art and beauty take on an animist quality It is argued that early fiction by Chingiz Aitmatov reveals a tension between animist perceptions and the totemic understanding of religion and mirrors aspects of pre Islamic Central Asian religious tradition The writing of Vladimir Tendriakov offers an example of a vision divided between an awareness of Christian dilemmas and loyalty to Marxist Leninist sociological models The study also shows how Durkheim s theory of religion as an expression of a group s awareness of its identity can be related to ideas put forward by Russian nationalist writers Iurii Bondarev Sergei Alekseev and Vasilii Belov It suggests that examples of fiction by Petr Proskurin and later works by Chingiz Aitmatov and Vladimir Tendriakov indicate revived interest in the God building theory of Maksim Gor kii and Anatolii Lunacharskii In conclusion the book argues that subtextual religious and mythological narratives in Soviet fiction published in the years between the fall of Khrushchev and the Millenium of Christianity in Rus provided a model for new literary discourse under perestroika and for subsequent political transformations   Antireligious Activities in the Soviet Union and in Eastern Europe United States.
