In a time of plague fundamental questions become immediate and personal The pandemic droughts floods fire political violence the world has been grimly reminded of the proximity and inevitability of death Jack Miles and Mark C Taylor acclaimed public intellectuals and scholars of religion one a Christian and the other an atheist close friends for fifty years have spent their lives grappling with questions of ultimate concern At the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic locked down at home and facing an uncertain future Miles and Taylor embarked on an extended conversation about living and dying in an imperiled world A Friendship in Twilight is their plague journal In raw and searching letters written daily from the first lockdowns through the Capitol riot Miles and Taylor reflect on life during overlapping crises Amid the menace of the pandemic and the unceasing political turmoil they debate the lessons that a catastrophic present can teach about the future and how to read think live and face up to death Confronting the vulnerability of their aging bodies and the frailty of American democracy the two friends discuss why and how philosophical reflection matters for a wounded world Their conversations are imbued with an ever present sense of urgency about the worth of a life the fragility of existence and the uncertainty of endings Seamlessly moving from heartfelt emotion to philosophical speculation current events to great art and literature this book is a powerful and moving testament to the precarity of life and to enduring friendship
