Remaking Muslim Politics Robert W. Hefner, 2009-01-10 There is a struggle for the hearts and minds of Muslims unfolding across the Islamic world The conflict pits Muslims who support pluralism and democracy against others who insist such institutions are antithetical to Islam With some 1.3 billion people worldwide professing Islam the outcome of this contest is sure to be one of the defining political events of the twenty first century Bringing together twelve engaging essays by leading specialists focusing on individual countries this pioneering book examines the social origins of civil democratic Islam its long term prospects its implications for the West and its lessons for our understanding of religion and politics in modern times Although depicted by its opponents as the product of political ideas made in the West civil democratic Islam represents an indigenous politics that seeks to build a distinctive Islamic modernity In countries like Turkey Iran Malaysia and Indonesia it has become a major political force Elsewhere its influence is apparent in efforts to devise Islamic grounds for women's rights religious tolerance and democratic citizenship Everywhere it has generated fierce resistance from religious conservatives Examining this high stakes clash Remaking Muslim Politics breaks new ground in the comparative study of Islam and democracy The contributors are Bahman Baktiari Thomas Barfield John R Bowen Dale F Eickelman Robert W Hefner Peter Mandaville Augustus Richard Norton Gwenn Okruhlik Michael G Peletz Diane Singerman Jenny B White and Muhammad Qasim Zaman

Remaking Muslim Politics Robert W. Hefner, 2005 Twelve essays examine the social origins of civil democratic Islam its long term prospects implications for the West its lessons for our understanding of religion politics in modern times

Secularism and Muslim Democracy in Turkey M. Hakan Yavuz, 2009-02-19 The Islamist Justice and Development Party swept to power in Turkey in 2002 Since then it has shied away from a hard line ideological stance in favour of a more conservative and democratic approach This book asks whether it is possible for a political party with deeply religious ideology to liberalise and entertain democracy

Shari'a Law and Modern Muslim Ethics Robert W. Hefner, 2016-08-29 Many Muslim societies are in the throes of tumultuous political transitions and common to all has been heightened debate over the place of sharia law in modern politics and ethical life Bringing together leading scholars of Islamic politics ethics and law this book examines the varied meanings and uses of Islamic law so as to assess the prospects for democratic plural and gender equitable Islamic ethics today These essays show that contrary to the claims of some radicals Muslim understandings of Islamic law and ethics have always been varied and emerge not from unchanging texts but from real and active engagement with Islamic traditions and everyday life The ethical debates that rage in contemporary Muslim societies reveal much about the prospects for democratic societies and a pluralist Islamic ethics in the future They also suggest that despite the tragic violence wrought in recent years by Boko Haram and the Islamic State in Iraq we may yet see an age of ethical renewal across the Muslim world

The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion Peter Clarke, 2011-02-04 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion draws on the expertise of an international team of scholars providing both an entry point into the sociological study and understanding of religion and an in depth survey into its changing forms and content in the contemporary world The role and impact of religion and spirituality on the politics culture education and health in the modern world is rigorously discussed and debated The study of the sociology of religion forges interdisciplinary links to explore aspects of continuity and change in the contemporary interface between society and religion Using a combination of theoretical methodological and content led approaches the fifty seven contributors collectively emphasise the complex relationships between religion and aspects of life from scientific research to law ecology to art music to cognitive science crime to institutional health care and more The developing character of religion irreligion and atheism and the impact of religious diversity on social cohesion are explored An overview of current scholarship in the field is provided in each themed chapter with an emphasis on encouraging new thinking and reflection on familiar and emergent themes to stimulate further debate and scholarship The resulting essay collection provides an invaluable resource for research and teaching in this diverse discipline

Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi, 2021-04-06 In Pakistan religious talk shows emerged as a popular television genre following the 2002 media liberalization reforms Since then these shows have become important platforms where ideas about Islam and religious authority in Pakistan are developed and argued In Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi reveals how these talk shows mediate changes in power belief and practice She also identifies the sacrifices and compromises that religious scholars feel compelled to make in order to ensure their presence on television These scholars of varying doctrinal and educational backgrounds including madrasa educated scholars and self taught celebrity preachers are given screen time to debate and issue religious edicts on the authenticity and contemporary application of Islamic concepts and practices In response viewers are sometimes allowed to call in live with questions Kazi maintains that these featured debates inspire viewers to reevaluate the status of scholarly edicts thereby fragmenting religious authority By exploring how programming decisions inadvertently affect viewer engagements with Islam Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan looks beyond the revivalist impact of religious media and highlights the prominence of religious talk shows in disrupting expectations about faith

Journalism and Conflict in Indonesia Steve Sharp, 2013 This book examines through the case study of Indonesia over recent decades how the reporting of violence can drive the escalation of violence and how journalists can alter their reporting practices in order to have the opposite effect and promote peace It discusses the nature of press freedom in Indonesia from 1966 onwards considers the relationship between the press and politicians and explores journalistse tm working methods It goes on to outline in detail the communal wars in eastern Indonesia in the period 1999 2000 arguing that communication as much as physical preparations for violence were key to bringing about the wars with journalistse tm rigid professional routines and newswriting conventions causing them to reproduce and enlarge the battle cries of those at war The book concludes by advocating a development communication approach to journalism in transitional settings in order to help journalists to counter the disintegrative tendencies of failing states and the communal strife that can result

Islam and Peacebuilding Ishan Yilmaz, 2013-02-27 The exploration of the contributions is made with regards to the title in hand by the thought and practice of the global movement associated with the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gulen The importance and distinctiveness of teaching of Gulen and the practice of the movement is that it is rooted in a confident Turkish Islamic heritage while being fully engaged with modernity It offers the possibility of a contextualised renewal of Islam for Muslims in the modern world while being fully rooted in the teachings of the Qu ran and the Sunnah of the Prophet It advocates the freedom of religion while making an Islamic contribution to the wider society based on a commitment to service of others

The Moral Economy of the Madrasa Keiko Sakurai, Fariba Adelkhah, 2011-03-07 The revival of madrasas in the 1980s coincided with the rise of political Islam and soon became associated with the clash of civilizations between Islam and the West This volume examines the rapid expansion of madrasas across Asia and the Middle East and analyses their role in society within their local national and global context Based on anthropological investigations in Afghanistan Bangladesh China Iran and Pakistan the chapters take a new approach to the issue examining the recent phenomenon of women in madrasas Hui Muslims in China relations between the Iran s Shia seminary after the 1979 Islamic revolution and Shia in Pakistan and Afghanistan and South Asian madrasas Emphasis is placed on the increased presence of women in these institutions and the reciprocal interactions between secular and religious schools in those countries Taking into account social political and demographic changes within the region the authors show how madrasas have been successful in responding to the educational demand of the people and how they have been modernized their style to cope with a changing environment A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international politics political Islam Middle East and Asian studies and anthropology
