Remembering And Forgetting An Inquiry Into The Nature Of Memory:

Remembering and Forgetting Edmund Blair Bolles, 1988 Explains how human memory works describes the biological structure of the brain and discusses amnesia memory lapses and examples of emotional memory History and Memory in African-American Culture Genevieve Fabre Professor of American Literature University of Paris, Robert O'Meally Professor of English and African-American Studies Columbia University, 1994-10-29 As Nathan Huggins once stated altering American history to account fully for the nation's black voices would change the tone and meaning the frame and the substance of the entire story Rather than a sort of Pilgrim's Progress tale of bold ascent and triumph American history with the black parts told in full would be transmuted into an existential tragedy closer Huggins said to Sartre's No Exit than to the vision of life in Bunyan The relation between memory and history has received increasing attention both from historians and from literary critics In this volume a group of leading scholars has come together to examine the role of historical consciousness and imagination in African American culture The result is a complex picture of the dynamic ways in which African American historical identity constantly invents and transmits itself in literature art oral documents and performances Each of the scholars represented has chosen a different site of memory from a variety of historical and geographical points and from different ideological theoretical and artistic perspectives Yet the book is unified by a common concern with the construction of an emerging African American cultural memory The renowned group of contributors including Hazel Carby Werner Sollors Veve Clark Catherine Clinton and Nellie McKay among others consists of participants of the five year series of conferences at the DuBois Institute at Harvard University from which this collection originated Conducted under the leadership of Genevieve Fabre Melvin Dixon and the late Nathan Huggins the conferences and as a result this book represent something of a cultural moment themselves and scholars and students of American and African American literature and history will be richer as a result History and Memory in African-American Culture Geneviève Fabre, Robert G. O'Meally, 1994 The relation between history and memory has become an object of increasing attention among historians and literary critics Through a team of leading scholars this volume offers a complex picture of the dynamic ways in which an African American historical identity constantly invents and transmits itself in books art performance and oral documents Navigating the Postmodern Condition Wade A. Tillett, 2024-11-21 Drawing on poststructuralist frameworks this book examines the way to a radical acceptance of daily discontinuities and difference as it allows us to embrace life in the postmodern world With each chapter exploring the human relationship with a disjunction in daily life such as sleeping forgetting and multitasking the author examines overlooked aspects of daily living as fresh data from which to analyze our condition A phenomenological study of postmodern life the book provides anecdotes of what it is like to live through these gaps and theorizes how we use these gaps Using an arts based methodology the author also allows the work to mirror the discontinuities which it describes interrupting the assumption of our lives as continuous and unitary in both form and content Addressing the vast jumble of contradictions that is our daily experience in this contemporary world it offers explanation through theory and anecdote and illustrates the path toward radical acceptance which allows us to see ourselves as beautifully composed of fractures gaps and overflow It will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students with interests in poststructuralism curriculum theory and art based research methods
