Review of Howard Moss John Fletcher, 1964

The Invisible Middle Term in Proust's A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Roxanne Hanney, 1990 This volume seeks to offer a new way of reading A la Recherche du Temps Perdu using a fluid manner of interpretation which suggests process rather than product This study contends that everything in Proust's work is threefold The middle term is the common ground shared by the two terms of comparison that constitute a metaphor

Proust's Imaginary Museum Gabrielle Townsend, 2008 This study of Marcel Proust's creative imagination examines an aspect of the novel that has hitherto been largely overlooked the author's dependence on secondary visual sources Gabrielle Townsend argues that reproductions play a key role in the work's complex multi-layered structure

Modern Manuscripts and the Pre-History of Digital Humanities Alex Christie, 2024-06-01 While text processing is often associated with the digital humanities it is still seen as worlds apart from literary modernism and its aesthetic preoccupations This book upsets that narrative Examining literary manuscripts from some of the twentieth century's best known and lesser known novelists from Marcel Proust to Mina Loy Alex Christie reveals where authors experimented with proto-digital writing methods by hand Instead of looking to computers as sources of inspiration the authors discussed turned to twentieth century media for their ability to reveal new layers of the material world From analog fantasies of contacting the dead to digital anxieties of invisible information the aesthetic ambitions of these novels can be traced back to their author's interest in emerging media devices and their technical operation To capture the magic of such devices through writing these authors devised radical methods for generating literary text anticipating today's digital humanities

Microscopy, Magnification and Modernist Fiction Patrick Armstrong, 2024-12-26 Exploring how modernism registered shock

experiences of the microscopic and extended vision in prose fiction through the work of four modernist writers D H Lawrence Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett this book is the first substantial study of the interrelations between microscopy and modernist fiction Illustrating ways in which optical instruments had the capacity to change displace and reframe ideas of what the world is like this book argues that encounters with the microscopic are often depicted as thresholds between the human and the non human in ways that reverberate through modernist fiction Exploring a period of significant developments in microscopical tools and techniques from the light microscope to the electron microscope this book traces a shift that reconfigured the limits of the observable A Reader's Guide to Proust's 'In Search of Lost Time'

Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber,2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Genevi ve Hal vy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adh aume de Chevign and lisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de si cle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women s daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women s lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past Proust's Binoculars Roger Shattuck,2014-07-14 In this compact volume readers just beginning Proust s master work and those who are already enriched by it will become aware of a significance not unkown but only forgotten the basic structure of Proust s enormous novel The overall meaning of Proust s book lies in his three ways of looking at the world cinematographic montage and stereoscopic and their varying effects on the emotions and the intellect Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Proust's Recherche Randolph Splitter,2023-08-18 Originally published in 1981 and now reissued with a new preface by Randolph Splitter this volume examines Proust s novel A la recherche du temps perdu from a psychoanalytic viewpoint showing that Marcel the central character like the novel itself is characterized by an unstable equilibrium of opposing forces so that he wishes both to dissolve the boundaries between inner and outer worlds and to maintain divisions and defenses Instead of trying to force the text into a rigid theoretical structure this reading of Proust's novel illuminates it by confronting and re-examining the problems that Freudian theory itself addresses In considering these problems the author also takes into account the findings of modern French psychoanalysis and literary criticism referring particularly to the work of Jacques Lacan and Jacques Derrida Discourses of Vision in Nineteenth-Century Britain Jonathan Potter, 2018-09-22 This book offers an innovative reassessment of the way Victorians thought and wrote about visual experience It argues that new visual technologies gave expression to new ways of seeing using these to uncover the visual discourses that facilitated informed and shaped the way people conceptualised and articulated visual experience In doing so the book reconsiders literary and non-fiction works by well known authors including George Eliot Charles Dickens G H Lewes Max Nordau Herbert Spencer and Joseph Conrad as well as shedding light on less known works drawn from the periodical press By revealing the discourses that formed around visual technologies the book challenges and builds upon existing scholarship to provide a powerful new model by which to understand how the Victorians experienced conceptualised and wrote about vision The Senses of Modernism Sara Danus, 2019-01-24 In The Senses of Modernism Sara Danus develops a radically new theoretical and historical understanding of high modernism The author closely analyzes Thomas Mann's The Magic Mountain Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past and James Joyce's Ulysses as narratives of the sweeping changes that affected high and low culture in the age of technological reproduction In her discussion of the years from 1880 to 1930 Danus proposes that the high modernist aesthetic is inseparable from a technologically mediated crisis of the senses She reveals the ways in which categories of perceiving and knowing are realigned when technological devices are capable of reproducing sense data Sparked by innovations such as chronophotography phonography radiography cinematography and technologies of speed this sudden shift in perceptual abilities had an effect on all arts of the time Danus explores how perception notably sight and hearing is staged in the three most significant modern novels in German French and British literature The Senses of Modernism connects technological change and formal innovation to transform the study of modernist aesthetics Danus questions the longstanding acceptance of a binary relationship between high and low culture and describes the complicated relationship between modernism and technology challenging the conceptual divide between a technological culture and a more properly aesthetic one James Joyce and Cinematicity Keith Williams, 2020-03-27 Investigates how the cinematic tendency of Joyce's writing developed from media predating film First comprehensive consideration of Joyce in the context of pre-filmic cinematicity Research and analysis based on recent media archaeology Examines the shaping of Joyce's fiction by late Victorian visual culture and science Shows that key aspects of his literary experimentation derive from forgotten popular cultural practices and vernacular modernism Shows Joyce's interaction with and critique of Modernity's developing media cultural imaginary In this book Keith Williams explores Victorian culture's emergent cinematicity as a key creative driver of Joyce's experimental fiction showing how Joyce's style and themes share the cinematograph's roots in Victorian optical entertainment and science The book reveals Joyce's references to optical toys shadowgraphs magic lanterns panoramas photographic analysis and film peepshows Close analyses of his works show how his techniques elaborated and critiqued their effects on modernity's media cultural imaginary
