Gregory,2022-11-15 This lucid insightful memoir by a man who knew Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife offers an informative view of a killer s marriage and lethal motivations Kirkus Reviews Merely two hours after the assassination of President John F Kennedy television cameras captured police escorting a suspect into Dallas police headquarters Meanwhile at the University of Oklahoma watching the coverage in the student center Paul Gregory scanned the figure in dark trousers and a white V neck tee shirt and saw the bruised and battered face of Lee Harvey Oswald Shocked Gregory said I know that man In fact he knew Oswald and his Soviet wife Marina better than almost anyone in America Identified by the FBI as a known associate of LHO Gregory soon faced interrogations by the Secret Service Later he would testify before the Warren Commission Here in The Oswalds he offers the intimate details of his time spent with Lee and Marina in their run down duplex in Fort Worth and candidly assesses the murder that marked a turning point in our history His riveting recollection includes memories both casual and deadly serious such as the dinner at his parents house introducing Marina to the Dallas Russians a front yard incident of spousal abuse and a further rift in the marriage when he revealed to Marina that Oswald was not the dashing radical intellectual whose Historic Diary would be a publishing sensation Gregory also gives a fascinating account of his father s role as an eyewitness to history serving as Marina s translator and confidant in the first four days after the assassination A definitive personality sketch of Oswald Gregory s book will stand the test of time Mark Kramer Director of Cold War Studies Harvard University Marina and Lee Outlet,Outlet Book Company Staff,Random House Value Publishing Staff,1980-04-01 JFK, Oswald and Ruby Burt W. Griffin, Warren Commission Assistant Counsel,2023-06-15 In this book former Warren Commission lawyer Burt Griffin examines anew the Kennedy assassination its various investigations its effects on the Cold War and the civil rights movement and the motives of Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby Griffin begins with his own skeptical reaction to the assassination proceeds to the Dallas police investigation and continues with the efforts of himself and his colleagues to sift truth from those who concealed withheld or exaggerated evidence After nearly six decades of study Judge Griffin is satisfied that Oswald acted alone He concludes that violence in the Cold War and civil rights movement caused Oswald to believe that blame for Kennedy s death might be placed on followers of rightwing activist and former U S Army general Edwin Walker Walker was an outspoken enemy of Oswald s idol Cuban president Fidel Castro and a firm opponent of racial integration and Oswald had already attempted to murder Walker in April 1963 The author gives the Walker movement a more prominent place in the assassination story and traces the conflicting ambitions of Walker Oswald Kennedy and Ruby as they collided in October and November 1963 This book will help serious readers separate truth from fiction and to become examiners of how insignificant unsuspected powerless people driven by very personal needs and fears can with the help of a firearm alter the course of history Lee Harvey Oswald

Michael Hastings,2013-11-05 If Lee Harvey Oswald did it he could not have done it alone If he did not he must be the hit of the century If he was involved and somehow double crossed alive today must be persons with the guilt of awful silence Dallas Texas 12 30pm Friday 22 November 1963 President John F Kennedy is assassinated 48 hours later Lee Harvey Oswald himself was murdered Told through the eyes of Oswald s wife and mother coupled with extracts from the Warren Commission s report we follow the unsettled drifting life of Lee Harvey Oswald his loveless marriage to his Russian wife his challenging relationship with his mother and his pathological hatred of Kennedy s life and achievements Oswald had the means motive and opportunity but did he even do it Could a man who never did anything on his own murder a President

Lee Harvey Oswald as I Knew Him George de Mohrenschildt,2014-11-22 Let us hope that this book poorly written and disjointed but sincere will help to clear up our relationship with our dear dead friend Lee Thus concludes a largely forgotten manuscript appended to Volume XII of the House Select Committee on Assassinations Lee of course was Lee Harvey Oswald the man accused of having assassinated President John F Kennedy in Dallas on November 22 1963 and whose closest friend many have argued was Dallas resident George de Mohrenschildt For years following Kennedy s assassination there were rumors and assumptions some started by de Mohrenschildt himself that this colorful larger than life European migr possessed a key to understanding Oswald s alleged actions The reflections presented here recorded between 1969 and his death in 1977 was de Mohrenschildt s attempt to recover the humanity of a friend he believed had been demonized as simply an insane killer In a series of recollections about his brief friendship with Oswald and his wife Marina between the fall of 1962 and the spring of 1963 de Mohrenschildt recalls conversations about Lee s time in Minsk about political issues of the day particularly Latin America and the Oswalds turbulent and troubled marriage He discusses the assassination and its aftermath including his lengthy 1964 Warren Commission testimony appearance on NBC television and concludes with his own speculations about the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate Kennedy and the question of Oswald s involvement Threaded throughout are de Mohrenschildt s reflections on the corrosive effects of his friendship with the Oswalds on his and his wife Jeanne s personal and professional lives first in 1964 and then echoing right up to the completion of this manuscript in 1976 Deftly edited and annotated by Michael Rinella whose introduction also supplies critical background information and context this once unwieldy grammatically quirky and eccentrically organized text can now be seen for the valuable biographical social and historical document it actually is Kennedy and Oswald Judyth Baker,Edward

Schwartz,2017-12-01 Unraveling the many strands of hidden history behind the assassination of President Kennedy is not an easy task Co authors Baker and Schwartz guide us toward the conclusion that ultimately the motivation was total governmental control a coup d tat changing us from a democratic republic to a oligopoly a corporatocracy With help from new witnesses regarding the Crime of the Century we are led to the realization that the War of Terror and the Patriot Act were predesigned to undermine our US Constitution and our Bill of Rights The very moment Kennedy died our own

Writing as Enlightenment John Whalen-Bridge, Gary Storhoff, 2011-08-01 This timely book explores how Buddhist inflected thought has enriched contemporary American literature Continuing the work begun in The Emergence of Buddhist American Literature editors John Whalen Bridge and Gary Storhoff and the volume's contributors turn to the most recent developments revealing how mid 1970s through early twenty first century literature has employed Buddhist texts principles and genres Just as Buddhism underwent indigenization when it moved from India to Tibet to China and to Japan it is now undergoing that process in the United States While some will find literary creativity in this process others lament a loss of authenticity The book begins with a look at the American reception of Zen and at the approaches to Dharma developed by African Americans The work of consciously Buddhist and Buddhist influenced writers such as Don DeLillo Gary Snyder and Jackson Mac Low is analyzed and a final section of the volume contains interviews and discussions with contemporary Buddhist writers These include an interview with Gary Snyder a discussion with Maxine Hong Kingston and Charles Johnson and discussions of competing American and Asian values at the Beat and Buddhist inspired writing program at Naropa University with poets Joanne Kyger Reed Bye Keith Abbott Andrew Schelling and Elizabeth Robinson
