Media Unbound Stephan Leshner, 1982-01-01 The Nightly News Nightmare Stephen J. Farnsworth, Robert S. Lichter, 2011 The Nightly News Nightmare Third Edition examines news coverage of presidential nomination and election campaigns from 1988 to 2008 Farnsworth and Lichter find that the news media despite the wide variety of outlets have consistent problems in terms of fairness and focus Public Communication and Behavior George Comstock, 2013-11-15 Public Communication and Behavior Volume I is devoted to the study of communicatory behavior that has a public or social character The book discusses an evaluation of the models used to evaluate television series a synthesis of 1043 effects of television on social behavior and TV news priming and public evaluations of the president The text also describes the myth of massive media impact savagings and salvaging and a technique for assessing the impact of mass media violence on real world aggressive behavior Psychologists sociologists educators journalists and people involved in the study of child development will find the book invaluable Women Politicians and the Media Maria Braden, 2021-09-15 All American politicians face the glare of media coverage both in running for office and in representing their constituents if elected But for women seeking or holding high public office as Maria Braden demonstrates the scrutiny by newspapers and television can be both withering and damaging a fact that has changed little over the decades despite the emergence of more women in politics and more women in the news media Particularly disturbing is the fact that the increase in the number of women reporters appears to have had little effect on the way women candidates are portrayed in the media Some women reporters in fact seem intent on proving that they can be just as tough on women candidates as their male counterparts thus perpetuating the misrepresentations of the past Braden examines the political fortunes of Jeannette Rankin the first woman elected to the U S House those of the congressional glamour girls of the 1940s Clare Boothe Luce and Helen Gahagan Douglas the long Senate career of Margaret Chase Smith the political struggles of diverse women of more recent decades including Bella Abzug Elizabeth Holtzman Nancy Kassebaum Barbara Jordan Dianne Feinstein and Ann Richards and the disastrous vice presidential bid of Geraldine Ferraro Braden traces a persistent double standard in media coverage of women s political campaigns through the past eighty years Journalists dwell on the candidates novelty in public office and describe them in ways that stereotype and trivialize them Especially demeaning are comments on women s appearance personality and family connections comments of a sort that would rarely be made about men candidates Are they too pretty or too plain What do their clothes say about them Are they feminine enough or too masculine Are they still just ordinary housewives or are they neglecting their families by heading for Washington or the state house Braden s study is based on both media accounts and the revealing personal interviews she conducted with a broad range of recent women politicians including Margaret Chase Smith Bella Abzug Kay Bailey Hutchison Nancy Kassebaum and Ann Richards All describe agonizing struggles to get across to the public the message that they are serious and competent candidates capable of holding high office and shaping our nation's course Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 1996 Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress This work makes the television researcher's job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood Corporate Public Affairs Otto Lerbinger, 2006-08-15 Corporate Public Affairs explores the increasing interest in public affairs by today's organizations Lerbinger indicates that more and more frequently corporations are establishing public affairs positions typically within public relations departments to respond to issues and concerns arising out of the sociopolitical environment in which the corporation functions He articulates the functions and responsibilities of the public affairs role and investigates the approaches to dealing with primary constituencies interest groups media and government Divided into five parts this book provides an overview of the corporate public affairs function explores strategies of the myriad interest groups in the United States such as labor unions and environmental consumer women's and human rights groups recognizes the media's increasing coverage of business events especially negative ones that have tremendous power both to undermine corporate credibility and to support public policy positions deals with legislative executive and judicial branches of government and raises the question of how corporate power strategies have affected the political marketplace This book will appeal to advanced level students scholars and practitioners in public relations and business fields Now the News Edward Bliss, Jr., 2010-06-01 Walter Cronkite Political Support in a Frustrated America Stephen J. Farnsworth, 2003-10-30 Public confidence and trust in government is low these days Farnsworth pinpoints this disappointment to shifting expectations of what exactly government should do Politicians were once expected to maintain economic growth but in our post scarcity era most citizens expect them to provide services such as welfare or environmental that are often contentious Enlarging the scope of local political empowerment will increase public support by making politics more approachable and responsive

The Mediated Presidency Stephen J. Farnsworth, Robert S. Lichter, 2005-08-18 Including late breaking data from the Iraq occupation and the disastrous CBS News reports on Bush's Vietnam era National Guard Service acclaimed media scholars Stephen J Farnsworth and S Robert Lichter examine news coverage of military policy economic policy and scandals from the last four U S presidencies including the current controversial administration Using a quarter century of content analysis data the authors demonstrate how the White House dominates Capitol Hill on every dimension of news coverage undermining Congress's attempt to compete as an equal branch before the public At the same time they show how the
