Necessary Lives Biographical Reflections:

Necessary Lives Benjamin Lawrence Reid, 1990 A collection of works on classical biography and autobiography this book includes essays on authors such as Boswell Johnson Keats and T S Eliot Reid examines writers of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries in order to demonstrate the essence of life showing what it is to be human Biography Catherine N.

Parke, 2020-10-28 Catherine Parke explores biography through detailed examinations of Samuel Johnson Virginia Woolf Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein and other masters of the genre How To Do Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2012-10-22

Following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in the first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer's craft

Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2010-03-30 For what purpose and for whom has biographical pursuit endured and how does it play such a contested popular role in contemporary Western culture Award winning biographer Hamilton addresses these questions in an incisive and vivid narrative that will appeal to students of human nature and self representation across the arts and sciences Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02

Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Thoret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak's useful big picture introduction traces the history of auto biography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in auto biography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada Telling the Untold Story

Steve Weinberg, 1992 Author of his own controversial unauthorized biography of Armand Hammer Steve Weinberg here shows how a new generation of biographers is revealing the lives of powerful individuals in dramatic and important new ways Trained as investigative journalists today's writers have entered a domain once dominated by university scholars Unlike their more academic predecessors who often wrote nonjudgmental books on the public lives of long dead individuals these new biographers are willing to tackle such powerful living subjects as Nancy Reagan Henry Kissinger Hugh Hefner Pete Rose and Fidel Castro Few of these books are adoring Without cooperation from their subjects and sometimes under threat of lawsuit these writers are probing into private lives and enabling readers to make up their own minds about public figures Tracing the evolution of the craft of biography up to the present day Weinberg draws on interviews with some of today's best biographers

as well as his own experience with the Hammer biography to highlight the careers of some of the writers whose work exploded the boundaries of traditional biography When Robert Caro became the first journalist to win a Pulitzer Prize for Biography for his book on Robert Moses it marked the dawn of a new approach to the craft Weinberg also explores the techniques of Philadelphia Inquirer journalists Donald Barlett and James Steele whose jointly authored biographies of Howard Hughes and Nelson Rockefeller mark another sign of how far the genre of biography has come The book is enriched by samples of investigative biography at its best including a scathingly honest profile of the reigning queen of unauthorized biography Kitty Kelley and Calvin Trillin's fascinating New Yorker profile of the Miami Herald's inimitable police reporter Edna Buchanan The living of a life is more difficult than the chronicling of it but the chronicling is certainly no simple task writes Weinberg Telling somebody else's life fully fairly and compellingly is probably an impossible task But it is important to keep pushing the limits of the possible For writers reviewers publishers and general readers Telling the Untold Story is a fascinating look at how a new kind of biographer has forever changed our expectations of the genre and continues to push biography to exciting new limits

Life-Writing Donald J. Winslow, 1995-01-01 This text presents an introduction and a reference source of terms in the writing of biographies autobiographies and related literature Samuel Johnson and Biographical Thinking Catherine Neal Parke, 1991 Catherine N Parke offers new readings of Johnson's major prose writings the familiar and the not so familiar Through an inquiry into the centrality of biography in his thinking she examines Johnson's ideas about education portrays his habits of mind and explores his creative temperament Biography Carl Rollyson, 2016-06-28 This is the only comprehensive annotated bibliography of writing about biography Rollyson a biographer and scholar of biography includes chapters on the history of biography beginning in the Greco Roman period and concluding with biographers such as Leon Edel and Richard Ellmann Ample sections on psychobiography the new feminist biography and on biographers who appear in works of fiction are also included Cited in many recent books on the genre of biography Biography An Annotated Bibliography is an essential research tool as well as a clearly written work for those wishing to browse through the commentary on this important genre

A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang, 2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research
