Anthropology Economics Geography Government and Politics Political Economy International Relations Sociology Mapping an Empire of American Sport Mark Dyreson, J.A. Mangan, Roberta J. Park, 2013-09-13 Since the mid nineteenth century the United States has used sport as a vehicle for spreading its influence and extending its power especially in the Western Hemisphere and around the Pacific Rim but also in every corner of the rest of the world Through modern sport in general and through American pastimes such as baseball basketball and the American variant of football in particular the U S has sought to Americanize the globe s masses in a long series of both domestic and foreign campaigns Sport played roles in American programs of cultural economic and political expansion Sport also contributed to American efforts to assimilate immigrant populations Even in American games such as baseball and football sport has also served as an agent of resistance to American imperial designs among the nations of the Western hemisphere and the Pacific Rim As the twenty first century begins sport continues to shape American visions of a global empire as well as framing resistance to American imperial designs Mapping an Empire of American Sport chronicles the dynamic tensions in the role of sport as an element in both the expansion of and the resistance to American power and in sport s dual role as an instrument for assimilation and adaptation This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport Contemporary Caribbean Cultures and Societies in a Global Context Franklin W. Knight, Teresita Martínez Vergne, 2005 The Caribbean ranks among the earliest and most completely globalized regions in the world From the first moment Europeans set foot on the islands to the present products people and ideas have made their way back and forth between the region and other British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain , 2003 Judicial institutionalization of integration processes Ricardo Caichiolo, 2016-09-07 The focus of this book is the judicial institutionalization of integration processes through the development of dispute settlement mechanisms more specifically in the Common Market of the South MERCOSUR to date the most important regional bloc in Latin America The bloc has been in existence since 1991 and has positioned itself as one of the potential regional blocs for trade and investment while becoming one of the important actors in the international community However its achievements have been tainted by the gaps and problems attached to the core foundation of the regional bloc MERCOSUR has been suffering or experiencing internal disputes and disunity due to its complex and low institutionalization a situation which can be seen as being paradoxical Its current Dispute Settlement

Mechanism is subject to uncertainty and doubt since its own framework is also under internal and external criticism There has been a series of protocols made in order to tackle the problems of the DSM and to further fix the problems that hinder the cooperation as well as the productivity of MERCOSUR s intra organisation all guided by intergovernmental decision making As such this book seeks to tackle the concept of regionalism and the possible models which have been used or have influenced the establishment of MERCOSUR while discussing the different aspects and developments of each intra organisation This is done in order to evaluate the nature of the problem and future developments that could take place The book also focuses on the prevalence of politicization in MERCOSUR and the pre eminence of Presidential Diplomacy over the path of regional integration which influence the DSM of MERCOSUR and possible developments that might occur in the near future
