Not In Vain:

Your Labour Shall Not Be in Vain Gertrude Manu Decker, 2014-08-14 I am Gertrude Manu a born again Christian married with three children I am a minister of the gospel Over two decades the Lord has used me to preach and teach his word to many that are depressed brokenhearted those that are in bondage and to heal the sick by his grace Over the years in ministry I have faced a lot of challenges that sometimes compelled me to have some negative thoughts but the Lord has always proved himself faithful by making me understand that he is God Alone and he is closer than what we think of This has moved me to write to as many in his vineyard who might be facing challenges in their Christian race or ministry to be encouraged to know that God rewards the faithful and he will surely reward us in due season This is my third book My first book is entitled You Can Make It through the Storms my second book When the Glory Comes And here is my third book entitled Your Labour Shall Not Be in Vain My books are not totally fiction Many of the messages are out of experience and they have touched many lives God has called me in this time to encourage the weak and those that are weary I minister both in churches and conferences I live in Italy with my family The Poetic Messenger Part Ii Veronica B. White, 2013-10-24 If you liked Part 1 of The Poetic Messenger you will love Part 2 Veronica White continues to advocate and tell the story of people who cannot write or express their ideas thoughts or experiences In order to tell the stories of these wonderful individuals Veronica puts herself in their shoes and connects with them either emotionally spiritually and sexually As a result she writes as The Messenger to their pain joy and frustrations as depicted in this poetic prose called Time to Heal Time to heal Time to set aside unnecessary pills Time to get back on track And take the time to just relax Smell a rose Bass in the sun Watch the children play and run Time to change your attitude And show a little more gratitude To experts who are trying their best And love ones who comfort in distress Sickness can be unreal But you must continue to live And be thankful for each new day Praying away the pains of yesterday Life is like a vapor of smoke One minute were here Seconds later were gone Tomorrow isnt promised And time waits on no one When our life on earth is finished Our mission is done Accusatory Theology Archim. Not in the Heavens David Biale,2015-10-27 The story of the origins and development of a Jewish form of secularism Not in the Heavens traces the rise of Jewish secularism through the visionary writers and thinkers who led its development Spanning the rich history of Judaism from the Bible to today David Biale shows how the secular tradition these visionaries created is a uniquely Jewish one and how the emergence of Jewish secularism was not merely a response to modernity but arose from forces long at play within Judaism itself Biale explores how ancient Hebrew books like Job Song of Songs and Esther downplay or even exclude God altogether and how Spinoza inspired by medieval Jewish philosophy recast the biblical God in the role of nature and stripped the Torah of its revelatory status to instead read scripture as a historical and cultural text Biale examines the influential Jewish thinkers who followed in Spinoza s secularizing footsteps such as Salomon Maimon Heinrich Heine Sigmund Freud and Albert Einstein He tells the stories of those who also took their cues from medieval Jewish mysticism in their revolts against tradition including Hayim Nahman Bialik Gershom Scholem and Franz Kafka And he looks at Zionists like David Ben Gurion and other secular political thinkers who recast Israel and the Bible in modern terms of race nationalism and the state Not in the Heavens demonstrates how these many Jewish paths to secularism were dependent in complex and paradoxical ways on the very religious traditions they were rejecting and examines the legacy and meaning of Jewish secularism today *An Asylum for Fugitive Pieces, in Prose and Verse, Not in Any Other Collection: with Several Pieces Never Before Published.
