Passionate Enlightenment Miranda Shaw, 2021-06-08 The crowning cultural achievement of medieval India Tantric Buddhism is known in the West primarily for the sexual practices of its adherents who strive to transform erotic passion into spiritual ecstasy Historians of religion have long held that the enlightenment thus attempted was for men only and that women in the movement were at best marginal and subordinated and at worst degraded and exploited Miranda Shaw argues to the contrary presenting extensive new evidence of the outspoken and independent female founders of the Tantric movement and their creative role in shaping its distinctive vision of gender relations and sacred sexuality Passionate Enlightenment Miranda Shaw, 1996

Introduction to the Study of Religion Hillary P. Rodrigues, John S. Harding, 2023-11-29. Why do people study religion? How have they studied it in the past? How do we study religion today? Is the academic study of religion the same as religious education? These and many other questions are addressed in this engaging introduction to the discipline of religious studies. Topics include: Definitions of religion; Perspectives in the study and teaching of religion; How religion began to be studied; Traditional perspectives: philosophical and theological; How people experience religion; Perspectives in the study of religion: consciousness and perception, phenomenological and psychological; Studying religion within communities: Social and cultural perspectives, anthropological, sociological, political and economic; Judging religion: Critical perspectives, feminist approaches, the interaction of popular literature and religion; Contextual perspectives: historical and comparative; Themes, theories and current directions. This thoroughly updated second edition encourages students to think critically about the theories and methods presented. Students will find arguments for the strengths and limitations of these approaches, understand connections among religious studies and other intellectual movements, and develop their own ideas of how they might want to go about the study of religion. Summary boxes, discussion questions, a glossary, a chronology of key figures and texts, and other pedagogic aids help students grasp key concepts.

Erotic Morality Linda Holler, 2002. This work examines the role of the senses and emotions, especially touch, in moral reflection and agency. It proposes that ethics consider touch as the centre of moral life rather than disciplines designed to control the body and feelings.

Asia Redux Prasenjit Duara, 2013-06-27. In the erudite essay that opens this forum, Prasenjit Duara turns to both indigenous thinkers and the premodern past for tools with which to think about Asia in a global age. Contemporary modalities of regional exchange, weakly bounded network-oriented pluralistic, multitemporal, chime with earlier patterns of cultural circulation without state domination, giving rise to a prophetic vision of Asia Redux. This attempt to capture the contours of a re-emergent region was calculated to provide. And what a debate it kicks off! Wang Hui resolutely reframes imagining Asia as a political project on a world historical canvas. Tansen Sen greatly complicates the map of intra-Asian commercial exchange in earlier times. Amitav Acharya outlines five competing conceptions of Asia in the domain of international relations alone. Barbara Watson Andaya teases out the paradoxical way in which regional religions make clashing claims about Asian unity, and Rudolf Mrazek asks what of the Asia that bleeds, what of exploitation and its spawn, the inglorious built ends of the global economy. The reward for those who read this collection straight through is a thrillingly cacophonous conversation about how to grasp Asia in our time Karen E Wigen Stanford University Will a re emergent Asia extend the violent rivalries and inequalities of Western dominated empires nations and capital Or can Asia somehow draw on a relatively more peaceful past of maritime trade interlinked religions and circulations beyond states to think and make a very different sort of region and world Prasenjit Duara and his interlocutors define this vital debate on Asia s future through illuminating reflections on its recent and deep past A touchstone for anyone concerned with a future shape of an inter connected Asia newly possessed of wealth and power Engseng Ho Duke University
