Regional Problems and Policies in Italy and France Kevin Allen, M. C.

MacLennan, 2024-11-01 First published in 1970 Regional Problems and Policies in Italy and France examines the problem of regional imbalance in two important countries of Western Europe and emphasizes that policies aimed at promoting regional development must form an integral part of national economic policies The book is divided into three parts Part I Regional Problems and Policies in Italy part II Regional Problems and Policies in France and part III Regional Policy Three Issues Part I and II analyze how regional policy in France and Italy has moved away from the public assistance type of intervention into new broader approaches which require reorganization of traditional procedures change in economic structures introduction of new products and methods of production movement of workers between areas and occupations and shifts in geographical distribution of population and employment Part III explores regional planning and growth centres or growth areas in the light of French and Italian experiences It further analyses the regional effects of the EEC and gives a brief account of how British regional problems and policies would be affected by the membership of Community This volume is an essential reading for students of Western European governmental policy and the European Economic Community

Policy Integration for Complex Environmental Problems Helen Briassoulis, 2017-07-05 The quest for policy integration crystallized in the 1990s as awareness was growing that the current supply of narrow sectoral and little coordinated or even overlapping and conflicting policies could not cope efficiently and effectively with contemporary complex cross cutting and interdependent socio environmental problems Combining and coordinating policies properly promises to address this institutional misfit add value to policies support planning at national and sub national levels and facilitate the transition to sustainable development more generally This book proposes a comprehensive conceptualization of policy integration and negotiates pertinent theoretical methodological and applied issues from the perspective of selected EU policies rural development regional development transport social economic environmental water resources and biodiversity policy Mediterranean desertification an exceptionally complex socio environmental problem is used as an illustrative example as the idea for this book transpired while researching the topic of policy making to combat desertification in the context of MEDACTION an EU funded research project
