INTRODUCTION

The Renaissance was a period of great cultural and intellectual change in Europe, from the late 14th to the early 17th century. It began in Italy and spread to the rest of Europe. The word 'Renaissance' comes from the French word 'renaître', meaning 'to be born again'. This period saw a revival of interest in the art, literature, and science of ancient Greece and Rome. Artists like Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael created masterpieces that still inspire us today. Scientists like Galileo and Copernicus made groundbreaking discoveries that changed our understanding of the world. The Renaissance was a time of great achievement and innovation.

Scott Dixon, 2016-03-24 The years 1450 1650 were a momentous period for the development of Christianity They witnessed the age of Reformation and Counter Reformation perhaps the most important era for the shaping of the faith since its foundation C Scott Dixon explores how the ideas that went into the making of early modern Christianity re-oriented the Church to such an extent that they gave rise to new versions of the religion He shows how the varieties and ambivalences of late medieval theology were now replaced by dogmatic certainties where the institutions of Christian churches became more effective and modern staffed by well trained clergy Tracing these changes from the fall of Constantinople to the end of the Thirty Years War and treating the High Renaissance and the Reformation as part of the same overall narrative the author offers an integrated approach to widely different national social and cultural histories Moving beyond Protestant and Catholic conflicts he contrasts Western Christianity with Eastern Orthodoxy and examines the Church's response to fears of Ottoman domination The
