Render Unto Caesar The Religious Sphere In World Politics:

Render Unto Caesar Sabrina P. Ramet, Donald W. Treadgold, 1995 From the introduction For many people it may come as a surprise to learn that the history of ecological politics has not always been inherently and necessarily progressive and benign In fact ecological ideas have a history of being distorted and placed in the service of highly regressive ends even of fascism itself This theme is discussed in the two essays presented here Fascist Ideology The Green Wing of the Nazi Party and its Historical Antecedents and Ecology and the Modernization of Fascism in the German Ultra Right Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Three Yugoslavias Sabrina P. Ramet, 2006-06-06 Based on extensive archival research and fieldwork and the culmination of more than two decades of study The Three Yugoslavias is a major contribution to an understanding of Yugoslavia and its successor states

Religion in Global Politics Jeffrey Haynes, 2014-10-13 One of the most resilient ideas about societal development after World War II was that nations would inevitably secularise as they modernised However as we come to the end of the secular twentieth century it is obvious that religion continues to be an important factor in politics around the world The author examines the continuing importance of religion focusing upon the regions of Europe the Americas Africa and Asia

The Translatability of the Religious Dimension in Shakespeare from Page to Stage, from West to East Jenny Wong, 2018-05-29 This interdisciplinary study traverses the disciplines of translation studies hermeneutics theater studies and sociology Under the power turn or political turn in translation studies the omission and untranslatability of religious material are often seen as the product of censorship or self censorship But the theology of each individual translating agent is often neglected as a contributing factor to such untranslatability This book comprehensively traces the hermeneutical process of the translators as readers and the situational process and semiotics of theater translation Together these factors contribute to an image of translated literature that in turn influences the literature's reception While translation theorists influenced by the current sociological turn view social factors as determining translation activities and strategies this volume argues that the translator's or the dramatist's theology and religious values interact with the socio-cultural milieu to carve out a unique drama production Often it is the religious values of the translating agents that determine the product rather than social factors Further the translatability of religious discourse should be understood in a broader sense according to the seven dimensions proposed by Ninian Smart rather than merely focusing on untranslatability as a result of semantic and linguistic differences An Introduction to International Relations and Religion Jeffrey Haynes, 2014-04-23 Not so very long ago it seemed reasonable to assert that the influence of religion on global politics was on the wane As the Western world became increasingly secular and the process of globalisation deepened it seemed inevitable on the surface at least that the voice of religion was to be heard softly if it was to be heard at all This has now changed and changed perhaps irrevocably As Jeff Haynes argues in this thought provoking and important new book various religious actors are now significantly involved in international relations and have become a crucial influence on policy in a post Westphalian world International Relations and Religion guides the reader through the complex issues at the heart of this topic with clarity and insight This updated second edition starts with a close reading of the many theoretical and analytical concepts notably Huntington and the clash of civilisations that have grown up around this area and then concludes with a summary of the issues under discussion and attempts to put into context what it means to live in a world that is increasingly shaped by a whole host of diverse religious groups Essential reading for students of International Relations and Politics Religious Transnational Actors and Soft Power Jeffrey Haynes, 2016-03-23 Haynes looks at religious transnational actors in the context of international relations with a focus on both security and order With renewed scholarly interest in the involvement of religion in international relations many observers and scholars have found this move unexpected because it challenges conventional wisdom about the nature and long term historical impact of secularisation The return of religion to international relations necessarily involves deprivatisation Recent challenges to international security and order emanate from various entities notably extremists people often said to be excluded from the benefits of globalisation for reasons of culture history and geography This study looks at the dynamics of this new religious pluralism as it influences the global political landscape Several specific transnational religious actors are examined in the chapters including American Evangelical Protestants Roman Catholics the Organisation of the Islamic Conference Sunni extremist groups al Qaeda and Lashkar e Taiba and Shia transnational networks While varying widely in what they seek to achieve they also share an important characteristic each seeks to use religious soft power to advance their interests In sum these religious transnational actors all wish to see the spread and development of certain values and norms which impact on international security and order Religion and Politics in Post-Communist

Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2007-10-25 In the post communist era it has become evident that the emerging democracies in Eastern Europe will be determined by many factors only some of them political Throughout the region the Orthodox Roman Catholic and Greek Catholic churches have tried to impose their views on democracy through direct political engagement Moreover surveys show that the churches and the army enjoy more popular confidence than elected political bodies such as parliaments These results reflect widespread disenchantment with a democratization process that has allowed politicians to advance their own agendas rather than work to solve the urgent socio economic problems these countries face In this penetrating study Lavinia Stan and Lucian Turcescu investigate the interaction of religion and politics in one such country Romania Facing internal challenges and external competitions from other religions old and new the Orthodox Church in Romania has sought to consolidate its position and ensure Romania's version of democracy recognizes its privileged position of national Church enforcing the Church's stances on issues such as homosexuality and abortion The post communist state and political elite in turn rely on the Church for compliance with educational and cultural policies and to quell the insistent demands of the Hungarian minority for autonomy Stan and Turcescu examine the complex relationship between church and state in this new Romania providing analysis in key areas church collaboration with communist authorities post communist electoral politics nationalism and ethno politics restitution of Greek Catholic property religious education and sexual behavior and reproduction As the first scholars to be given access to confidential materials from the archives of the communist political police the notorious Securitate Stan and Turcescu also examine church archives legislation news reports and interviews with politicians and church leaders This study will move the debate from common analyses of nationalism in isolation to more comprehensive investigations which consider the impact of religious actors on a multitude of other issues relevant to the political and social life of the country The Assemblage of Korean Shamanism

Joonseong Lee, 2022-10-14 The most unique aspect of Korean shamanism is its mysterious duality that continually reiterates the processes of deterritorialization and reterritorialization This book approaches that puzzle of mysterious duality using an interdisciplinary lens Korean shamanism has been under continuous oppression and marginalization for a long time and that circumstance has never dissipated Shaman culture can be found in every corner of people's lives in contemporary Korea but few acknowledge their indigenous beliefs with pride This mysterious duality has deepened as the mediatization process of Korean shamanism has developed Korean shamanism was revived as the dynamic of shamanic inheritance in the process but these dynamics have also become the object of mockery For this reason any true understanding of Korean shamanism rests in how to unravel the unique puzzles of this mysterious duality In this book the duality is mapped out by playing with the puzzles surrounding the contextualization of Korean shamanism and mediatization Local Organizations and Urban Governance in East and Southeast Asia

Benjamin L. Read, Robert Pekkanen, 2009-06-02 This edited collection brings together enterprising pieces of new research on the many forms of organization in East and Southeast Asia that are sponsored or mandated by government but engage widespread participation at the grassroots level Straddling the state society divide these organizations play important roles in society and politics yet remain only dimly understood This book shines a spotlight on this phenomenon which speaks to fundamental questions about how such societies choose to organize themselves how institutions of local governance change over time and how individuals respond to and make use of the power of the state The contributors investigate organizations ranging from volunteer based organizations that partner with government in providing services for homeless children to state managed networks of neighborhood or village level associations that perform representative as well as administrative functions and seeks to answer a number of questions When do the vertical top down imperatives of the state stifle horizontal solidarities and when might the two work in harmony Are useful social and administrative purposes served by this type of fusion Does it amplify or merely muffle citizens voices What does it tell us about existing accounts of community social capital synergy complementarity subsidiarity and related concepts Representing seven countries China Japan Vietnam Thailand Indonesia Taiwan and Singapore this volume will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and academics in Asian studies political science sociology anthropology development history nonprofit studies

The Young Bultmann William D. Dennison, 2008 During his early life 1884-1925 Rudolf Bultmann passionately attempted to unite scholar and laity through his understanding of God which developed in the context of his home and its love for the common people of the church the legacy of Schleiermacher Marburg Lutheran neo Kantianism the eschatological perspective of the History of Religion School dialectical theology and Heidegger's philosophy of existence Bultmann always insisted that God reflected the inner forces of life within each human being Over the years however Bultmann came to hold that Lutheran neo Kantianism provided the basic structure by which to analyze critique and strengthen his understanding of God In light of this neo Kantian structure Bultmann insisted that God could not be the formulation of any scientific ethical or artistic construction In other words God could not be the object or manifestation of human reason in any form since God transcended human reason Hence in 1925 through the assistance of the dialectical theologians and Heidegger Bultmann presented his purest formulation of a neo Kantian understanding of God God as the spontaneous moment of encountering the dialectical forces within our existential being

The Shaman's Wages Kyoim Yun, 2019-09-30 Breaking from previous scholarship on Korean shamanism which focuses on mansin of mainland Korea The Shaman's Wages offers the first in depth study of simbang hereditary shamans on Cheju Island off the peninsula's southwest coast In this engaging ethnography enriched by extensive historical research Kyoim Yun explores the prevalent and persistent ambivalence toward practitioners whose services have long been sought out yet derided as wasteful by anti shaman commentators and occasionally by their clients Intrigued by discord between simbang and their clients over fee negotiations Yun set out to learn the deep rooted legacy of condemning or trivializing the practitioners self interests from a neo Confucian governor's purge of shrines during the Chosŏn dynasty to the recent transformation of a community ritual into a practice recognized through UNESCO World Heritage status Drawing on a wealth of firsthand observations she shows how simbang distinguish ritual exchanges from more mundane instances of bartering purchasing bribing and gift giving and explains why ritual affairs are nonetheless inevitably thorny This original study illuminates the intertwining of religion and economy in shamanic practice on Cheju Island

Serbia Since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Vjeran I. Pavlakovic, 2011-09-01 During their thirteen years in power Slobodan Milosevic and his cohorts plunged Yugoslavia into wars of ethnic cleansing leading to the murder of thousands of civilians The Milosevic regime also subverted the nation's culture twisted the political mainstream into a virulent nationalist mold sapped the economy through war and the criminalization of a free market returned to gender relations of a bygone era and left the state so dysfunctional that its peripheries Kosovo Vojvodina and Montenegro have been struggling to maximize their distance from Belgrade through far reaching autonomy or through outright independence In this valuable collection of essays Vjeran Pavlakovic Reneo Lukic and Obrad Kesic examine elements of continuity and discontinuity from the Milosevic era to the twenty first century the struggle at the center of power and relations between Serbia and Montenegro Contributions by Sabrina Ramet James Gow and Milena Michalski explore the role of Serbian wartime propaganda and the impact of the war on Serbian society Essays by Eric Gordy Maja Miljovic Marko Hoare and Kari Osland look at the legacy of Serbia s recent wars issues of guilt and responsibility the economy and the trial of Slobodan Milosevic in The Hague Sabrina Ramet and Biljana Bijelic address the themes of culture and values Frances Trix Emil Kerenji and Dennis Reinhartz explore the peripheries in the politics of Kosovo a Vojvodina and Serbia s Roma Serbia Since 1989 reveals a Serbia that is still traumatized from Milosevic s rule and groping toward redefining its place in the world

A Companion to Hrotsvit of Gandersheim (fl. 960) Phyllis R. Brown, Stephen L. Wailes, 2012-10-12 Hrotsvit wrote stories plays and histories during the reign of Emperor Otto the Great 962-973 12 original essays survey her work showing historical roots and contexts Christian values and a surprisingly modern grappling with questions of identity and female self realization

Understanding the War in Kosovo Florian Bieber, Zidas Daskalovski, 2004-08-02 The war in Kosovo has been a defining moment in post Cold War Europe Kosovo has great importance beyond the Balkans as the most ambitious attempt of the international community to prevent internal conflicts and rebuild a society destroyed by war and ethnic cleansing As the danger of ethnic conflict prevails in the region and elsewhere around the world the experience of Kosovo offers important lessons This is a comprehensive survey of developments in Kosovo leading up to during and after the war in 1999 providing additionally the international and regional framework to the conflict It examines the underlying causes of the war the attempts by the international community to intervene and the war itself in spring 1999 It critically examines the international administration in Kosovo since June 1999 and contextualizes it within the relations of Kosovo to its neighbours and as part of the larger European strategy in Southeastern Europe with the stability pact It does not seek to promote one interpretation of the conflict and its aftermath but brings together a range of intellectual arguments from some sixteen researchers from the Balkans the rest of Europe and North America

Christianity and Human Rights Frederick M. Shepherd, 2009-07-15 In Christianity and Human Rights Christians and the Struggle for Global Justice Frederick M Shepherd has collected essays by scholars and activists who in a wide variety of ways confront the issue of Christianity's role in the burgeoning movement for human rights The volume's contributors provide diverse perspectives on the theology behind the idea of human rights the debate over its meaning and the evolution of the struggle for human rights A wide variety of disciplinary perspectives are represented from economics political science and law to history philosophy and theology The essays also represent a broad political spectrum including specific accounts from activists participating in the struggle for human rights Separate chapters focus on cases from Europe Africa Latin America and Asia Christianity and Human Rights begins and ends with attempts to synthesize current theory and practice acknowledging both Christianity's great success and its failures in defending basic human rights around the globe

Shamanism, Discourse, Modernity Thomas Karl Alberts, 2016-03-03 Shamanism Discourse Modernity considers indigenous peoples' struggles for human rights anxieties about anthropocentric mastery of nature neoliberal statecraft and entrepreneurialism of the self The book focuses on four domains shamanism indigenism environmentalism and neoliberalism in terms of interrelated historical processes and overlapping discourses In doing so it engages with shamanism's manifold meanings in a world increasingly sensitive to indigenous peoples' practices of territoriality increasingly concerned about humans' integral relationship with natural environments and increasingly encouraged and coerced to adjust self conduct to comport with and augment government conduct
